The Cambridge Companion to the

Italian Novel Peter Bondanella,Andrea Ciccarelli,2003-07-31 The Cambridge Companion to the Italian Novel provides a broad ranging introduction to the major trends in the development of the Italian novel from its early modern origin to the contemporary era Contributions cover a wide range of topics including the theory of the novel in Italy the historical novel realism modernism postmodernism neorealism and film and the novel The contributors are distinguished scholars from the United Kingdom the United States Italy and Australia Novelists examined include some of the most influential and important of the twentieth century inside and outside Italy Luigi Pirandello Primo Levi Umberto Eco and Italo Calvino This is a unique examination of the Italian Novel and will prove invaluable to students and specialists alike Readers will gain a keen sense of the vitality of the Italian novel throughout its history and a clear picture of the debates and criticism that have surrounded its development Metamorphosing Dante Fabio Camilletti,Manuele Gagnolati,Fabian Lampart,2010-12-01 After almost seven centuries Dante endures and even seems to haunt the present Metamorphosing Dante explores what so many authors artists and thinkers from varied backgrounds have found in Dante s oeuvre and the ways in which they have engaged with it through rewritings dialogues and transpositions By establishing trans disciplinary routes the volume shows that along with a corpus of multiple linguistic and narrative structures characters and stories Dante has provided a field of tensions in which to mirror and investigate one s own time Authors explored include Samuel Beckett Walter Benjamin Andr Gide Derek Jarman LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka James Joyce Wolfgang Koeppen Jacques Lacan Thomas Mann James Merrill Eugenio Montale Pier Paolo Pasolini Cesare Pavese Giorgio Pressburger Robert Rauschenberg Vittorio Sereni Virginia Woolf Broken Time, Fragmented Space Anna Maria Torriglia,2002-12-15 Broken Time Fragmented Space A Cultural Map for Post war Italy examines how the artists and intellectuals of post war Italy dealt with the shameful heritage of their fascist upbringing and education by trying to craft a new cultural identity for themselves and the country The continuities between the culture of the fascist and post fascist periods were however far greater than what intellectuals were ready to admit creating an uncomfortable sometimes schizophrenic relation to time as a painful urge to erase the past Drawing on a variety of critical approaches Torriglia investigates the efforts to reconstruct a personal as well as a collective self by analyzing both canonical and lesser known cinematic and literary texts Organized around four main themes the use of language the interaction between personal and public spheres the perceptual categories of history and memory and the reconstruction of the female identity the study also includes historical introductions and sociological commentary that provides an extensive and captivating picture of the cultural production in 1950s Italy a period that has not yet been extensively studied The Moon and the Bonfires Cesare Pavese,2002-10-31 Winner of the 2003 PEN Book of the Month Club Translation Prize A NEW YORK

REVIEW BOOKS ORIGINAL The nameless narrator of The Moon and the Bonfires Cesare Pavese's last and greatest novel returns to Italy from California after the Second World War He has done well in America but success hasn't taken the edge off his memories of childhood when he was an orphan living at the mercy of a bitterly poor farmer He wants to learn what happened in his native village over the long terrible years of Fascism perhaps he even thinks he will settle down And yet as he uncovers a secret and savage history from the war a tale of betrayal and reprisal sex and death he finds that the past still haunts the present The Moon and the Bonfires is a novel of intense lyricism and tragic import a masterpiece of twentieth century literature that has been unavailable to American readers for close to fifty years Here it appears in a vigorous new English version by R W Flint whose earlier translations of Pavese's fiction were acclaimed by Leslie Fiedler as absolutely lucid and completely incantatory

Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1997 This Business of Living Cesare Pavese, 2017-09-08 On June 23rd 1950 Pavese Italy's greatest modern writer received the coveted Strega Award for his novel Among Women Only On August 26th in a small hotel in his home town of Turin he took his own life

Shortly before his death he methodically destroyed all his private papers His diary is all that remains and for this the contemporary reader can be grateful Contemporary speculation attributed this tragedy to either an unhappy love affair with the American film star Constance Dawling or his growing disillusionment with the Italian Communist Party His Diaries however reveal a man whose art was his only means of repressing the specter of suicide which had haunted him since childhood an obsession that finally overwhelmed him As John Taylor notes he possessed something much more precious than a political theory a natural sensitivity to the plight and dignity of common people be they bums priests grape pickers gas station attendants office workers or anonymous girls picked up on the street though to women the author could as he admitted be as misogynous as he was affectionate Bitter and incisive This Business of Living is both moving and painful to read and stands with James Joyce's Letters and Andre Gide's Journals as one of the great literary testaments of the twentieth century

Secrets and Puzzles Nicoletta Simborowski, 2017-12-02 Four major Italian writers raised in the shadow of fascism Cesare Pavese Primo Levi Natalia Ginzburg and Francesca Sanvitale are the focus of this examination of the unsaid in modern Italian narrative Post war and free of official censorship these writers nonetheless show signs of constraint and omission in their work Are the gaps a form of concealment In this lucid and wide ranging study which embraces key areas of modern literary investigation Holocaust writing political guilt autobiography feminism and film theory the author addresses the question of self censorship and traces its course in contemporary Italian writing

'Onde Di Questo Mare' Rossella Riccobono, Doug Thompson, 2003-02-01 In the half century following Pavese's death much that was written about him sought principally to understand and define his complex character and to determine his place within the twentieth century Italian literary canon Latterly there appears to have been a significant shift in focus towards a closer reading of individual works or aspects or periods of his writing the better to analyse and reveal the subtleties and depth of his vision This present collection of ten essays conforms broadly with this tendency It is organised chronologically with regard to Pavese's life and works so as to convey a sense of the development of a writer over and above the particular concerns of any given essay The book features contributions from many leading experts on Pavese
