The Literary Construction of the Other in the Acts of the Apostles Mitzi J. Smith, 2012-06-28. Mitzi Smith engages the reader in explaining how, as in the real world, the characterization of the "Other" is used negatively in the biblical texts. Smith shows how the concept of difference is constructed in order to distinguish ourselves from proximate others; indeed, the "other" who is most similar to us is most threatening and most problematic. The process of "Othering" or "Otherness" is a synthetic and political social construct that allows us to create and maintain boundaries between them and us. Thus, this work demonstrates how proximate characters are constructed as the "Other" in the Acts of the Apostles. Charismatics, Jews, and women are proximate others who are constructed as the external and internal "Others."

Leaders in Heels Pastor Paul Cannings, 2024-10-08. In Leaders in Heels, Dr. Paul Cannings Sr. illuminates the profound impact of biblical women whose courage, wisdom, and faithfulness shaped the course of history. Challenging traditional interpretations that have sometimes relegated women to the sidelines, this compelling exploration reveals how women like Mary Bathsheba, Deborah, Phoebe, and Lydia exerted remarkable influence during pivotal moments in biblical narrative. Through careful analysis of scripture and historical context, Cannings demonstrates how these women worked within their cultural frameworks to fulfill divine purposes. From Mary's faithful motherhood that nurtured the Messiah to Deborah's courageous leadership as judge and prophetess, from Phoebe's critical role in establishing early churches to Lydia's entrepreneurial support of Paul's ministry, each story showcases how women acted as catalysts for God's kingdom work. Particularly powerful is Cannings' personal testimony of how his own mother and other female mentors shaped his spiritual journey and ministry, providing a contemporary lens through which to view biblical examples. The book culminates with the inspiring story of Mary Magdalene, demonstrating how even those with troubled pasts can become spiritual giants when transformed by divine grace. Both affirming and challenging, Leaders in
