Committee on the Judiciary, 1947 Transnational Gothic Professor Bridget M Marshall, Professor Monika Elbert, 2013-02-28 Offering a variety of critical approaches to late eighteenth and nineteenth century Gothic literature this collection provides a transnational view of the emergence and flowering of the Gothic The essays expand on now well known approaches to the Gothic such as those that concentrate exclusively on race gender or nation by focusing on international issues religious traditions social reform economic and financial pitfalls manifest destiny and expansion changing concepts of nationhood and destabilizing moments of empire building By examining a wide array of Gothic texts including novels drama and poetry the contributors present the Gothic not as a peripheral marginal genre but as a central mode of literary exchange in an ever expanding global context Thus the traditional conventions of the Gothic such as those associated with Ann Radcliffe and Monk Lewis are read alongside unexpected Gothic formulations and lesser known Gothic authors and texts These include Mary Rowlandson and Bram Stoker Frances and Anthony Trollope Louisa May Alcott Elizabeth Gaskell Theodore Dreiser Rudyard Kipling and Lafcadio Hearn as well as the actors Edmund Kean and George Frederick Cooke Individually and collectively the essays provide a much needed perspective that eschews national borders in order to explore the central role that global and particularly transatlantic exchange played in the development of the Gothic British American Continental Caribbean and Asian Gothic are represented in this collection which seeks to deepen our understanding of the Gothic as not merely a national but a global aesthetic Hearings United States. Congress. House,1956 Too Many Times MELVILLE HOUSE,2020-10-13 A complete guide to the origins and everyday experience of gun violence in America and a series of solutions to put a stop to its destruction once and for all Gun violence is a problem with many faces but seemingly no solution From mass shootings to deadly domestic abuse to police officers opening fire it permeates American life And yet it feels impossible to address The lines are firmly drawn and the federal government has not passed any legislation to reduce gun ownership in over twenty five years That s why it s time to look at the issue differently In this revelatory collection gun violence in America is addressed from three angles how gun violence affects us today how we have gotten to this juncture legally and socially and finally what we can do to reduce and end gun violence in America Too many lives are lost by gun fire around 15 000 a year but we do have the tools to address this crisis Top journalists organizations and anti gun violence advocacy groups are represented here from Pamela Colloff to Ibram X Kendi to Everytown for Gun Safety and the Giffords Organization to collect the most comprehensive thoughtful and practical guide on gun violence in America There are no deadlocks and no excuses we have the tools to stop gun violence now

Preaching the Blues Maisha S. Akbar,2019-10-02 Preaching the Blues Black Feminist Performance in Lynching Plays examines several lynching plays to foreground black women s performances as non normative subjects who challenge white supremacist ideology Maisha S Akbar re maps the study of lynching drama by examining plays that are contingent upon race based settings in black households versus white households She also discusses performances of lynching plays at Historically Black Colleges and Universities HBCUs in the South and reviews lynching plays closely tied to black school campuses By focusing on current examples and impacts of lynching plays in the public sphere this book grounds this historical form of theatre in the present day with depth and relevance Of interest to scholars and students of both general Theatre and Performance Studies and of African American Theatre and Drama Preaching the Blues foregrounds the importance of black feminist artists in lynching culture and interdisciplinary scholarship Black Aesthetics and the Interior Life

Christopher Freeburg,2017-09-12 Christopher Freeburg s Black Aesthetics and the Interior Life offers a crucial new reading of a neglected aspect of African American literature and art across the long twentieth century Rejecting the idea that the most dehumanizing of black experiences such as lynching or other racial violence have completely robbed victims of their personhood Freeburg rethinks what it means to be a person in the works of black artists This book advances the idea that individual persons always retain the ability to withhold express or change their ideas and this concept has profound implications for long held assumptions about the relationship between black interior life and black collective political interests Examining an array of seminal black texts from Ida B Wells s antilynching pamphlets to works by Richard Wright Nina Simone and Toni Morrison Freeburg demonstrates that the personhood represented by these writers unsettles rather than automatically strengthens black subjects relationships to political movements such as racial uplift civil rights and black nationalism He shows how black artists illuminate the challenges of racial collectivity while stressing the vital stakes of individual personhood In his challenge to current African Americanist criticism Freeburg makes a striking contribution to our understanding of African American literature and culture Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on the Judiciary United States.
