Lyric Provinces In The English Renaissance:

Lyric Provinces in the English Renaissance Harold E. Toliver, 1985 Lyric Provinces in the English Renaissance Harold E. Toliver, 1985 Elizabethan Women and the Poetry of Courtship Ilona Bell, 1998 This 1999 book offers an original study of lyric form and social custom in the Elizabethan age Ilona Bell explores the tendency of Elizabethan love poems not only to represent an amorous thought but to conduct the courtship itself Where studies have focused on courtiership patronage and preferment at court her focus is on love poetry amorous courtship and relations between Elizabethan men and women The book examines the ways in which the tropes and rhetoric of love poetry were used to court Elizabethan women not only at court and in the great houses but in society at large and how the women responded to being wooed in prose poetry and speech Bringing together canonical male poets and women writers Ilona Bell investigates a range of texts addressed to women written by read heard or transformed by Elizabethan women and charts the beginnings of a female lyric tradition

Soliciting Interpretation Elizabeth D. Harvey, Katharine Eisaman Maus, 1990-08-08 This collection gathers new essays by critics and scholars who are currently reshaping our sense of the function and nature of seventeenth century poetry Contributors return to the New Critical canon of Renaissance poetry with fresh perspectives that emphasize considerations of gender ideology power and language In the first group of essays David Norbrook Annabel Patterson John Guillory Rosemary Kegl and Stephen Orgel explore the various ways in which a text can be political Next Arthur Marotti Jane Tylus and Jonathan Goldberg consider the circumstances of textual production and reception in the seventeenth century Finally Stanley Fish Gordon Braden Michael C Schoenfeldt and Maureen Quilligan discuss the particular forms of anxiety that result when seventeenth century poets modify the traditional rhetoric of sexual desire to serve what seem to be erotic or religious purposes These essays accompanied by an extensive editors introduction intersect less in their shared enthusiasm for particular authors or interpretative methods than in a common interest in particular critical issues They present the most exciting work by critics redefining Renaissance studies

Dickson, Holly Faith Nelson, 2004 This collection examines intertextual intersections in the works of Henry Vaughan and John Milton and considers their aesthetic philosophical or political implications The theoretical pluralism of the volume reveals the variety and complexity of textual relations in the words of these early modern authors Some of the essays focus on the author's conscious creation of intertext others explore the reader's negotiation of books within books while still others examine the linguistic effect of textual intersections The essays not only consider material borrowing but also explore the absorption of concepts or formal structures from antecedent texts The volume not only adds to the debate on Milton's iteration duplication and renovation of precursor texts but represents the first collection of original essays on the poetry and prose of Henry Vaughan essays authored by experts in the field Donald Dickson is Professor of English at Texas A M University Holly Faith Nelson is Assistant Professor of English at Trinity Western University The Classic Hundred Poems William Harmon, 1998 Here in one volume are the top one hundred poems as determined by a survey of more than 1 000 anthologies the poems in English most frequently anthologized the poems with the broadest most enduring appeal From Shakespeare to Dickinson to Frost from sonnets to odes to villanelles William Harmon's Classic Hundred Poems offers a feast for poetry lovers This book updates the first edition by presenting the new top one hundred poems nineteen of which were not in the first edition The revised edition is arranged chronologically and features new commentary and notes on verse form as well as an index of the poems in order of popularity notes on words and proper names and a bibliography for each poet and each poem A glossary of terms author index and index of titles and first lines are also included From Keats To Autumn now ranked as the number one poem in this collection to George Herbert's Virtue in the hundredth spot every poem is illuminated by Harmon's informative notes With insights into the historical period in which each poem was written the verse form used and connections among poems this is the ideal introduction to poetry as well as a treasury for the dedicated reader

Curiosities and Texts Marjorie Swann, 2010-11-24 A craze for collecting swept England during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Aristocrats and middling sort men alike crammed their homes full of a bewildering variety of physical objects antique coins scientific instruments minerals mummified corpses zoological specimens plants ethnographic objects from Asia and the Americas statues portraits Why were these bizarre jumbles of artifacts so popular In Curiosities and Texts Marjorie Swann demonstrates that collections of physical objects were central to early modern English literature and culture Swann examines the famous collection of rarities assembled by the Tradescant family the development of English natural history narrative catalogs of English landscape features that began to appear in the Tudor and Stuart periods the writings of Ben Jonson and Robert Herrick and the foundation of the British Museum Through this wide ranging series of case studies Swann addresses two important questions How was the collection which was understood as a form of cultural capital appropriated in early modern England to construct new social selves and modes of subjectivity And how did literary texts both as material objects and as vehicles of representation participate in the process of negotiating the cultural significance of collectors and collecting Crafting her unique argument with a balance of detail and insight Swann sheds new light on material culture s relationship to literature social authority and personal identity

Prayer and Power Michael C. Schoenfeldt, 1991-08-13 Michael C. Schoenfeldt here offers the first major exploration of the connections between George Herbert s devotional poetry and the social practices and political discourse of his day Viewing The Temple and The Country Parson as part of the larger civilizing process of Western Europe Schoenfeldt shows how Herbert discovers in the discourses of courtesy and theology a common vocabulary of authority selfhood petition and discipline Before entering the priesthood Herbert nourished contacts in court was elected University Orator at Cambridge and served in Parliament In turning to God Schoenfeldt argues Herbert did not simply turn away from the secular world but also turned its language particularly the language of courtesy into the medium for his lyric worship of God The confluence of courtesy and spirituality in Herbert s poetry provides a fascinating insight into a society searching for an appropriate discourse of reverence in a time of baffling change The first five chapters investigate the manifold ways in which Herbert s life and works exemplify the interdependence of social and religious behavior in the English Renaissance The sixth and final chapter extends this investigation into the nervous eroticism of Herbert s poems Considering The Temple as well as Herbert s letters speeches Latin poems collections of foreign proverbs translations The Country Parson and less familiar lyrics Schoenfeldt offers a thorough and detailed reading of Herbert s rich and conflicted corpus Prayer and Power is not only a bold redefinition of the accomplishment of one of the finest poets of the English Renaissance but also the first sustained study to advance a cultural poetics of the religious lyric

Perspectives Jalal Uddin Khan, 2015-02-05 Perspectives Romantic Victorian and Modern Literature is an up to date explication of various popular and classic subjects and authors arranged chronologically The book composed of thirteen essays examines Blake Coleridge Byron Shelley Keats Victorian medievalism the Victorian reaction to British India Ben

Jonsonian elements in Yeats Yeats and Maud Gonne the treatment of the Irish civil war and Irish nationalism in Yeats and the treatment of the Spanish civil war in the selected works of modern fiction and nonfiction Marked by an originality of approach and a freshness and simplicity the book takes note of contemporary theoretical interdisciplinary and cultural discourse drawn from literature history politics and religion as necessary However it is far from being unnecessarily outweighed by the loaded clichés oft repeated jargon and overused euphemisms of modern literary or critical theory The result is regardless of its specialized treatment of otherwise commonplace or well known texts or topics that the overall discussion is as lucid introductory and expository as it is deep and scholarly making the book easily accessible and understandable to non specialist readers in addition to specialist researchers and academics

The Pulse of Praise Julia Carolyn Guernsey, 1999 Guernsey draws on D W Winnicott's object relations model which focuses on self development in a relational context to illuminate various senses of self and Other that Herbert's poems express discursively and formally The book will appeal not only to Herbert scholars and other Renaissance critics but also to audiences interested in psychoanalysis and how it relates to literature religion culture and poetics
