 Long before she wrote The House of Dies Drear M C Higgins the Great and many other children s classics Virginia Hamilton grew up among her extended family near Yellow Springs Ohio where her grandfather had been brought as a baby through the Underground Railroad The family stories she heard as a child fueled her imagination and the freedom to roam the farms and woods nearby trained her to be a great observer In all Hamilton wrote forty one books each driven by a focus on the known the remembered and the imagined particularly within the lives of African Americans Over her thirty five year career Hamilton received every major award for children s literature This new biography gives us the whole story of Virginia s creative genius her passion for nurturing young readers and her clever way of crafting stories they d love TX Ate Eol and Black History Month Pat Scales, 2014-02-04 DIV Black History Month is a time when all Americans celebrate the rich African American culture in our society It was Carter G Woodson an African American historian who began a weeklong celebration called Negro History Week in 1926 as a way to honor Frederick Douglass and Abraham Lincoln Now schools libraries churches and communities find special ways to honor the contributions of African Americans during the month of February One of the best ways to celebrate is by reading books by and about African Americans Virginia Hamilton s works are among the many children s books that call upon readers to think about slavery freedom and heritage Through her stories Hamilton instills cultural pride as well as a sense of family and the importance of friendship Black History Month is a time to help young readers realize that these universal themes transcend race and that through the power of story all races are truly
