conceptions of the Black man's world conservatism versus progressiveness and exploitation The play surprises by its unanticipated cruel ending is relatively poor in action but subtly embeds external conflicts respectively racial issues as well as internal conflicts trivial quarrels among the characters Since I see a crucial juxtaposition between two characters Toledo the intellectual and Levee the ignorant who theatrically become opponents in the final man slaughter scene I am focusing on a comparison between those two after a brief description of the plot and the set of characters The first third of the play bears a faint resemblance with Waiting for Godot because it depicts the impatient White producer and manager as well as the quarrelling Black band members waiting for their singer the famous Ma Rainey who takes her time getting her big black bottom to the rehearsal scheduled for 1 00 p m She banishes one band member ignorant conceited and vain Levee who is constantly seen polishing his shoes from future productions Levee dreams of establishing his own band anyway hoping to become famous with his more modern songs not this old jug band shit 16 that the White producer has promised to record with him However the latter retracts his offer offering him ridiculous five dollars for each of his songs leaving Levee stranded who is already so overheated that he overacts pulls his knife and in affect stabs his colleague Toledo who accidentally steps on his shiny shoe This shoe stepping scene which takes place on page 87 Hey Watch it shit You stepped on my shoe is foreshadowed by a similar event when another band member Slow Drag by mistake commits the same crime p 26 Damn Slow Drag Watch them big ass shoes you got The irony of the play is that the most understanding of all characters is killed for nothing for having left a tiny mark on the unstained immaculate eleven dollars worth of shoes     August Wilson Harold Bloom, 2009 Discussion and criticism of Ma Rainey's black bottom Fences Joe Turner's come and gone and Two trains running     Africana Methodology James L. Conyer, Jr., 2018-10-15 This book critically examines the collection interpretation and analysis of quantitative and qualitative data from an Afrocentric perspective The necessity of interpretive Afrocentric research is relevant to position agency and to locate Africana studies in place space and time This study will provide readers with a compilation of literary historical philosophical and social science essays that describe and evaluate the Africana experience from a methodological perspective Paradoxically the collection presents measurable and qualitative research in order to flush out a global Pan Africanist consciousness     Jet, 1984-11-12 The weekly source of African American political and entertainment news     Black Manhood in James Baldwin, Ernest J. Gaines, and August Wilson Keith Clark, 2004-01-22 Explores the novels short stories and plays of three African American writers to demonstrate how they challenged classic portrayals of black men in earlier literature Discusses how the identity of black men changed from one equated with victimization isolation and patriarchy to one of community camaraderie and intimacy     Fences and Ma Rainey's Black Bottom August Wilson, 2020 In Ma Rainey's Black Bottom the great blues diva Ma Rainey is due to arrive at a run down Chicago recording studio with her entourage to cut new sides of old favourites Waiting for her are the black musicians in her band and the white owners of the record company A tense searing account of racism in jazz era America that the New Yorker called a genuine work of art Fences centres on Troy Maxson a garbage collector an embittered former baseball player and a proud dominating father When college athletic recruiters scout his teenage son Troy struggles against his young son s ambition his wife who he understands less and less and his own frustrated dreams New York Magazine ,1984-10-22 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Ma Rainey's black bottom August Wilson,1985 Monologues for Actors of Color Roberta Uno,2000 This collection features 45 monologues excerpted from contemporary plays and specially geared for actors of color Robert Uno has carefully selected the monologues so that there is a wide range of ethnicities included African American Native American Latino and Asian American Each monologue comes with an introduction with notes on the characters and stage directions to set the scene for the actor Publisher Cannibal Democracy Zita Nunes,2008 Zita Nunes argues that the prevailing narratives of identity formation throughout the Americas share a dependence on metaphors of incorporation and often of cannibalism From the position of the incorporating body the construction of a national and racial identity through a process of assimilation presupposes a remainder a residue Nunes addresses works by writers and artists who explore what is left behind in the formation of national identities and speak to the limits of the contemporary discourse of democracy Cannibal Democracy tracks its central metaphor s circulation through the work of writers such as Mrio de Andrade W E B Du Bois and Toni Morrison and journalists of the black press as well as work by visual artists including Magdalena Campos Pons and Keith Piper and reveals how exclusion understood in terms of what is left out can be fruitfully understood in terms of what is left over from a process of unification or incorporation Nunes shows that while this remainder can be deferred into the future lurking as a threat to the desired stability of the present the residue haunts discourses of national unity undermining the ideologies of democracy that claim to resolve issues of race Zita Nunes is associate professor of English at the University of Maryland College Park
