Arthur Machen: 30+ Horror Classics, Supernatural Mysteries & Fantasy Books Arthur Machen, 2023-12-30 Arthur Machen 30 Horror Classics Supernatural Mysteries Fantasy Books is a comprehensive anthology that delves into the intricacies of the supernatural and the macabre within Machen's illustrious oeuvre Renowned for his rich evocative prose Machen masterfully weaves a tapestry of eerie landscapes enigmatic rituals and the unseen forces that permeate the mundane world His works often reflect the fin de siècle preoccupations with spirituality mysticism and the potential horrors lurking within everyday life positioning him as a pivotal figure in the development of 20th century horror literature Arthur Machen 1863 1947 a Welsh author and mystic drew inspiration from his own experiences in rural Wales where folklore and ancient traditions shaped his worldview His early engagement with both classical literature and esoteric writings imbued his narratives with philosophical depth reflecting the tension between the natural and the supernatural Adversity in his personal life and the loss of faith experienced during the industrial age also influenced his writing rendering his horror not merely sensational but a profound exploration of the human psyche This collection is essential for readers and scholars alike as it not only showcases Machen's rich imagination but also illuminates the evolution of horror as a genre Whether a dedicated aficionado of supernatural tales or a newcomer to Machen's works this anthology offers an unparalleled journey into the shadowy corners of existence that will leave readers pondering the thin veil between reality and the unknown The

Ultimate Experience Y. Harari, 2008-03-07 For millennia war was viewed as a supreme test In the period 1750-1850 war became much more than a test it became a secular revelation This new understanding of war as revelation completely transformed Western war culture revolutionizing politics the personal experience of war the status of common soldiers and the tenets of military theory Memories from the Frontline Jerry Palmer, 2018-05-21 This book analyses soldiers memoirs from the Great War of 1914-18 from Britain France and Germany It considers both the authors composition of the memoirs and the public response to them It provides contextual analysis through a survey of the different types of contemporary writing about the Great War through an analysis of changes in the language used to describe combat and through an analysis of those people whose accounts of the war were either excluded or marginalised It also considers the international response to the most successful of the texts The purpose of the analysis is to show how soldiers memoirs contributed to the collective memory of the war and how they influenced public opinion about the war These texts are both autobiographical and historical and their relationship to the fields of autobiography and historical writing is also considered as well as to the distinction between fact and fiction The Ghost of One's Self Paul Meehan, 2017-09-19 For millennia people have held folk beliefs about the existence of the doppelgänger double walker in German a look alike second self that is often the antithesis of one's identity and is usually considered an omen of misfortune or death The theme of the double has inspired works by E T A Hoffmann Poe de Maupassant Dostoevsky and others and has been the basis for many classic mystery horror and science fiction movies This critical survey examines the double in more than 100 films by such acclaimed directors as Alfred Hitchcock Mario Bava Roger Corman David Cronenberg George Romero Fritz Lang James Cameron Robert Siodmak Don Siegel John Frankenheimer Terry Gilliam Brian De Palma and Roman Polanski The Solitary War of a Sniper Martin Pegler, 2025-07-30 The remarkable story of Harry Furness a young British sniper who fought from D Day to Germany Growing up in a working class family in Manchester Harry Furness joined the army in 1939 at the age of 16 Having always been captivated by the stories of First World War snipers he immediately volunteered for sniper training when the army began to recruit soldiers in 1941 He did exceptionally well qualifying as a marksman whilst a pre war army cadet and was quickly promoted to lance corporal Just prior to D Day he was promoted to corporal in the Green Howards Regiment and landed at Gold Beach on 6th June 1944 Together he and his comrades began a hard fight across North West Europe gradually moving through Northern France Belgium Holland and eventually into Germany as they pushed the Germans back towards the Rhine The manifold dangers and occasional humour of Harry Furness's experiences of war come across in a very matter of fact but compelling way in the dozens of previously unpublished letters personal interviews and images that make up Martin Pegler's fascinating moving biography of Furness and his extraordinary life Memoirs of a suicide Yvonne do Amaral Pereira, Camilo Cândido Botelho (Espírito), 2021-10-10 Under the guidance of the spirit Leon Denis the spirit author Camilo Castelo Branco using the pen name Camilo Cândido Botelho describes to the medium Yvonne A Pereira his dreadful experience after having incarnated by committing suicide The book entails invaluable instruction demonstrating the greatness of the Divine Mercy toward repentant suicides and providing them with the opportunity to understand the universe and life in its fullest dimension The beginnings of planet Earth the evolution of the human being the immortality of the soul Christian morality and other relevant themes are presented for the understanding that no attempt at moral growth will work if we remain imprisoned in self ignorance A complete reading of this work shows that there is a road of reconstruction for those who repent There is always hope because rehabilitation is possible The Companion to Southern Literature
