Dissected, and Set Forth, by a Mad Man Mad man,1644 Literature and the Work of Universality Alice Duhan,Stefan Helgesson,Christina Kullberg,Paul Tenngart,2024-07-22 In an age of accelerating ecological crises global inequalities and democratic fragility it has become crucial to achieve renewed articulations of human commonality With anchorage in critical theory as well as world literary studies this volume approaches literature and modes of literary thinking as a key resource for such a task Universality is understood here not as an established universalism but as a horizon towards which intellectual inquiry and literary practices orient themselves In the field of world literature there is by now a wide repertoire of epistemological resources through which claims to universality can be both questioned and reconfigured If at one end of the spectrum world literature confronts us with the spectre of homogenisation and the commodification of difference under a regime of global capitalism at another end renewed forms of philological anthropological and ecological attentiveness to the particulars of languages and texts within the crucible of connected histories allow for defamiliarising perspectives both on received historical narratives and aesthetic practices Vernacularity emerges here as a central point of reference for constructing the universal from within the particular the idiomatic and the experiences of social subordination or complicity

Tucker Edmonds, 2020-12-02 The Other Black Church Alternative Christian Movements and the Struggle for Black Freedom examines the movements led by Father Divine Charles Mason and Albert Cleage later known as Jaramogi Abebe Agyeman as alternative Christian movements in the middle of the twentieth century that radically re-envisioned the limits and possibilities of Black citizenship These movements not only rethink the value and import of Christian texts and reimagined the role of the Black Christian prophetic tradition but they also outlined a new model of protest that challenged the language and logic of Black essentialism economic development and the role of the state By placing these movements in conversation with the long history of Black theology and Black religious studies this book suggests that alternative Christian movements are essential for thinking about African American critiques of and responses to the failures of U S based democracy These prophets of Black theological thought and their attention to the limits of the state and traditional Black religious formations are most fully appreciated when studied in light of their conversations and interactions with other key Black prophetic and theological figures of the mid twentieth century Ultimately The Other Black Church will use those conversations and archives from these movements to highlight their protest of the racial state to explore the limits of the Black church and to argue for their continued significance for thinking about the variety and vibrancy of Black protest specifically Black religious protest during the twentieth century The Madman's Middle Way Donald S. Lopez Jr., 2008-09-15 Gendun Chopel is considered the most important Tibetan intellectual of the twentieth century His life spanned the two defining moments in modern Tibetan history the entry into Lhasa by British troops in 1904 and by Chinese troops in 1951 Recognized as an incarnate lama while he was a child Gendun Chopel excelled in the traditional monastic curriculum and went on to become expert in fields as diverse as philosophy history linguistics geography and tantric Buddhism Near the end of his life before he was persecuted and imprisoned by the government of the young Dalai Lama he would dictate the Adornment for Nagarjuna's Thought a work on Madhyamaka or Middle Way philosophy It sparked controversy immediately upon its publication and continues to do so today The Madman's Middle Way presents the first English translation of this major Tibetan Buddhist work accompanied by an essay on Gendun Chopel's life liberally interspersed with passages from his writings Donald S Lopez Jr also provides a commentary that sheds light on the doctrinal context of the Adornment and summarizes its key arguments Ultimately Lopez examines the long standing debate over whether Gendun Chopel in fact is the author of the Adornment the heated critical response to the work by Tibetan monks of the Dalai Lama's sect and what the Adornment tells us about Tibetan Buddhism's encounter with modernity The result is an insightful glimpse into a provocative and enigmatic work that will be of great interest to anyone seriously interested in Buddhism or Asian religions Poet Lore, 1908 Unique Martial Sovereign Hei Yasishen, 2020-02-26 The Dao gave birth to one one gave birth to two two gave birth to three and three gave birth to all living things All living things had no heart and only the Dao could be formed I wanted to
