Manifold Identities Studies On Music And Minorities:

Manifold Identities Ursula Hemetek, 2004 This is a study of manifold identities focusing on music and musicology

Music and Minorities from Around the World Ursula Hemetek, Essica Marks, Adelaida Reyes, 2014-11-10 The acceleration of mobility among the world's peoples, the growth of populations resettling in places other than their homelands and world events that have propelled these developments have brought minorities unprecedented attention. Their significance as subjects for study has grown correspondingly and the study of their music has become an important gateway into understanding the culture of minorities.

De-Colonization, Heritage, and Advocacy Svanibor Pettan, Jeff Tilton, 2019-02-20 De Colonization Heritage and Advocacy is the second of three paperback volumes derived from the original Oxford Handbook of Applied Ethnomusicology. It offers an introduction to applied ethnomusicology and explores the themes of social justice, cultural ownership, colonialism and de colonization in relation to ethnomusicological research and fieldwork methodologies and applications.

The Oxford Handbook of Applied Ethnomusicology Svanibor Pettan, Jeff Todd Tilton, 2015 Applied studies scholarship has triggered a not so quiet revolution in the discipline of ethnomusicology. The current generation of applied ethnomusicologists has moved toward participatory action research involving themselves in musical communities and working directly on their behalf. The essays in The Oxford Handbook of Applied Ethnomusicology, edited by Svanibor Pettan and Jeff Todd Tilton, theorize applied ethnomusicology, offer histories and detail practical examples with the goal of stimulating further development in the field. The essays in the book, all newly commissioned for the volume, reflect scholarship and data gleaned from eleven countries by over twenty contributors. Themes and locations of the research discussed encompass all world continents. The authors present case studies encompassing multiple places other than that discuss circumstances within a geopolitical unit, either near or far. Many of the authors consider marginalized peoples and communities; others argue for participatory action research. All are united in their interest in overarching themes such as conflict, education, archives and the status of indigenous peoples and immigrants. A volume that at once defines its field, advances it and even acts as a large scale applied ethnomusicology project in the way it connects ideas and methodology, The Oxford Handbook of Applied Ethnomusicology is a seminal contribution to the study of ethnomusicology, theoretical and applied.

Music in Motion Bernd Clausen, Ursula Hemetek, Eva Saether, European Music Council, 2015-09-15 Diverse musical cultures of migrant and minority communities have existed in Europe for centuries and shaped its countries significantly. As part of an EU funded project, this volume deals with the musical activities of minorities and their impact on musical traditions in Europe. It also raises questions such as: How are musical traditions of minorities integrated in education and the public music life? Can music facilitate transcultural dialogue? And to what extent do musical practice and performance reassert the own cultural tradition in a foreign environment? Answers to those and similar questions as well as a review on what can be observed in the 21st century Europe are gathered in various thematic approaches. The book also provides model projects with a practical insight into the life and work with music of migrant and minority cultures across Europe
