Marriage Clinic A Scientifically Based Marital Therapy:

Marriage Clinic John M. Gottman, 1999-08-03 Gottman compares his clinic to a restaurant where clients are offered a menu of treatment formats from psychoeducation for specific issues to extended therapy to repair a badly damaged marital friendship. Therapists too can choose among the questionnaires and strategies those that fit the needs of particular couples.

BOOK JACKET The New Marriage Clinic John M. Gottman, Julie Schwartz Gottman, 2024-07-09 The widely celebrated research based marital therapy program now updated and revised. The highly influential book The Marriage Clinic presented a complete marital therapy program based on John Gottman's much heralded research on marital success and failure. Since then Dr Gottman has collaborated with his wife clinical psychologist Dr Julie Gottman to conduct their well known Love Lab studies allowing the pair to design a highly successful couples workshop and develop their Sound Relationship House theory. Now in the book's first ever revision Dr Gottman and Dr Gottman incorporate the results of their studies and their most powerful interventions. In addition to its original celebrated marital therapy program The New Marriage Clinic includes findings on the dynamics of same sex couples, interventions for couples recovering from situational domestic violence, strategies for couples rebuilding their marriages after an affair and much more. No relational therapist's bookshelf is complete without this vital update to the groundbreaking guide on marital therapy.

The Marriage Clinic John M. Gottman, 2016-12-19 The Marriage Clinic presents a complete marital therapy program based on John Gottman's much heralded research on marital success and failure. Here one will find not only a wide range of succinct and useful assessment procedures but also a highly specific research based and modularized treatment program. In addition there are dozens of questionnaires and interview protocols to be used in both assessment and intervention. In prospective long term research with over 700 couples Gottman has discovered certain factors that distinguish happy stable couples from both unstable ultimately divorcing couples and stable but unhappy couples. These findings which are explained here in understandable nontechnical language form the basis of his Sound Marital House theory of marriage which guides the new therapy. This therapy has two goals: changing the marital friendship and teaching couples to regulate conflict. Despite the high aims of much marital therapy Gottman found that most marital conflicts involve fundamentally unresolvable relationship issues called perpetual problems. He shows how therapists can help spouses move from gridlock to dialogue on these issues. Solvable problems can be resolved more easily when the couple has a strong marital friendship. He gives therapists the tools to teach spouses five fundamental skills to develop and strengthen their friendship: softened start up, accepting influence, repair and de-escalation, compromise, and physiological soothing. Gottman compares his clinic to a restaurant where clients are offered a menu of treatment formats from psychoeducation for specific issues to extended therapy to repair a badly damaged marital friendship. Therapists too can choose among the questionnaires and strategies for those that fit the needs of particular couples. Whatever their choice they will find that their practice is greatly enriched by the scientifically based
