Mind The Gap An Evolutionary View Of Health And Inequality:

Economics in America Angus Deaton, 2024-10-22 From the Nobel Prize winning economist and New York Times bestselling coauthor of Deaths of Despair and The Future of Capitalism candid reflections on the economist's craft When economist Angus Deaton immigrated to the United States from Britain in the early 1980s he was awed by America's strengths and shocked by the extraordinary gaps he witnessed between people Economics in America explains in clear terms how the field of economics addresses the most pressing issues of our time from poverty retirement and the minimum wage to the ravages of the nation's uniquely disastrous health care system and narrates Deaton's account of his experiences as a naturalized US citizen and academic economist Deaton is witty and pulls no punches In this incisive candid and funny book he describes the everyday lives of working economists recounting the triumphs as well as the disasters and tells the inside story of the Nobel Prize in economics and the journey that led him to Stockholm to receive one He discusses the ongoing tensions between economics and politics and the extent to which economics has any content beyond the political prejudices of economists and reflects on whether economists bear at least some responsibility for the growing despair and rising populism in America Blending rare personal insights with illuminating perspectives on the social challenges that confront us today Deaton offers a disarmingly frank critique of his own profession while shining a light on his adopted country's policy accomplishments and failures

Debating Biology Gillian Bendelow, Lynda Birke, Simon Williams, 2005-07-28 Debating Biology takes a fresh look at the relationship between biology and society as it is played out in the arena of health and medicine

Theory in Africa, Africa in Theory Stephanie Wynne-Jones, Jeffrey Fleisher, 2015-06-19 Theory in Africa Africa in Theory explores the place of Africa in archaeological theory and the place of theory in African archaeology The centrality of Africa to global archaeological thinking is highlighted with a particular focus on materiality and agency in contemporary interpretation As a means to explore the nature of theory itself the volume also addresses differences between how African models are used in western theoretical discourse and the use of that theory within Africa Providing a key contribution to theoretical discourse through a focus on the context of theory building this volume explores how African modes of thought have shaped our approaches to a meaningful past outside of Africa A timely intervention into archaeological thought Theory in Africa Africa in Theory deconstructs the conventional ways we approach the past positioning the continent within a global theoretical discourse and blending Western and African scholarship This volume will be a valuable resource for those interested in the archaeology of Africa as well as providing fresh perspectives to those interested in archaeological theory more generally

A Terrible Thing to Waste Harriet A. Washington, 2019-07-23 A powerful and indispensable look at the devastating consequences of environmental racism Gerald Markowitz and what we can do to remedy its toxic effects on marginalized communities Did you know Middle class African American households with incomes between 50 000 and 60 000 live in neighborhoods that are more polluted than those of very poor white households with incomes below 10 000 When swallowed a lead paint chip no larger than a fingernail can send a toddler into a coma one tenth of that amount will lower his IQ Nearly two of every five African American homes in Baltimore are plagued by lead based paint Almost all of the 37 500 Baltimore children who suffered lead poisoning between 2003 and 2015 were African American From injuries caused by lead poisoning to the devastating effects of atmospheric pollution infectious disease and industrial waste Americans of color are harmed by environmental hazards in staggeringly disproportionate numbers This systemic onslaught of toxic exposure and institutional negligence causes irreparable physical harm to millions of people across the country cutting lives tragically short and needlessly burdening our health care system But these deadly environments create another insidious and often overlooked consequence robbing communities of color and America as a whole of intellectual power The 1994 publication of The Bell Curve and its controversial thesis catapulted the topic of genetic racial differences in IQ to the forefront of a renewed and heated debate Now in A Terrible Thing to Waste award winning science writer Harriet A Washington adds her incisive analysis to the fray arguing that IQ is a biased and flawed metric but that it is useful for tracking cognitive damage She takes apart the spurious notion of intelligence as an inherited trait using copious data that instead point to a different cause of the reported African American white IQ gap environmental racism a confluence of racism and other institutional factors that relegate marginalized communities to living and working near sites of toxic waste pollution and insufficient sanitation services She investigates heavy metals neurotoxins deficient prenatal care bad nutrition and even pathogens as chief agents influencing intelligence to explain why communities of color are disproportionately affected and what can be done to remedy this devastating problem Featuring extensive scientific research and Washington s sharp lively reporting A Terrible Thing to Waste is sure to outrage transform the conversation and inspire debate

Смерти от безысходности и будущее капитализма Энн Кейс, Ангус Дитон, 2025-01-31 1918 2015 Tod aus Verzweiflung Anne Case, Angus Deaton, 2022-02-10 Der American Dream ist im Niedergang begriffen Für die weiße Arbeiterklasse ist das heutige Amerika zu einem Land der zerrütteten Familien und der mangelnden Perspektiven geworden Während College Absolventen immer gesünder und wohlhabender werden sterben Erwachsene ohne Abschluss immer häufiger an Alkohol Drogen und Suizid ein Tod aus Verzweiflung Die wachsende Macht der Konzerne und ein skrupelloser Gesundheitssektor sind nur zwei der Gründe Der Kapitalismus der in zwei Jahrhunderten unzählige Menschen aus der Armut befreite zerstört nun das Leben der amerikanischen Arbeiter Die renommierten Ökonomen Anne Case und Angus Deaton legen diese Misere in ihrem Buch schonungslos offen Drohen auch uns amerikanische Verhältnisse Die Autoren geben brandaktuelle Antworten

Wilkinson, 2001-01-01 Inequality kills Both rich and poor die younger in countries with the greatest inequalities in income Countries such as the United States with big gaps between rich and poor have higher death rates than those with smaller gaps such as Sweden and

Japan Why In this provocative book Richard Wilkinson provides a novel Darwinian approach to the question Wilkinson points out that inequality is new to our species in our two million year history human societies became hierarchical only about ten thousand years ago Because our minds and bodies are adapted to a more egalitarian life today s hierarchical structures may be considered unnatural To people at the bottom of the heap the world seems hostile and the stress is harmful If you are not in control you re at risk This is a penetrating analysis of patterns of health and disease that has implications for social policy Wilkinson concludes that rather than relying on more police prisons social workers or doctors we must tackle the corrosive social effects of income differences in our society □□ □□□□□□,2024-10-30 Pediatric Epidemiology W.
