Jeans, 2011-08-28 This book breaks new ground in our understanding of a pivotal period in the history of American foreign policy the early Cold War and the struggle for dominance in China between the Nationalists and Communists The famous Marshall Mission to China has been the focus of intense scrutiny ever since General George C Marshall returned home in January 1947 and full scale civil war consumed China Yet until recently there was little new to add to the story of the failure to avert war between the Chinese Nationalists under Chiang Kai shek and the Chinese Communists led by Mao Zedong Drawing on a newly discovered insider's account Roger B Jeans makes an invaluable contribution to our understanding of Marshall's failed mediation effort and the roles played by key Chinese figures Working from the letters and diary of U S Army Colonel John Hart Caughey Jeans offers a fresh interpretation of the mission From beginning to end Caughey served as Marshall's executive officer in effect his right hand man assisting the general in his contacts with the Chinese and drafting key documents for him Through his writings Caughey provides a rare behind the scenes view of the general's mediation efforts as well as intimate glimpses of the major Chinese figures involved including Chiang Kai shek Madame Chiang and Zhou Enlai In addition to daily contact with Marshall Caughey often rubbed shoulders with these major Nationalist and Communist figures As a meticulous eyewitness to history in the making Caughey offers crucial insight into a key moment in post World War II history

Modernisation of Chinese Culture Jana S. Rošker, Nataša Vampelj Suhadolnik, 2014-09-26 The editors are grateful to the Chiang Ching kuo Foundation for its generous support of their research work which enabled them to publish the present book The present book carefully maps the Chinese modernisation discourse highlighting its relationship to other similar discourses and situating it within historical and theoretical contexts In contrast to the majority of recent discussions of a Chinese development model that tend to focus more on institutional than cultural factors and are more narrowly concerned with economic matters than overall social development the book offers several important focal points for many presently overlooked issues and dilemmas The multifaceted perspectives contained in this anthology are not limited to economic social and ecological issues but also include political and social functions of ideologies and cultural conditioned values representing the axial epistemological grounds of modern Chinese society 2011 was the 100th anniversary of the Xinhai Revolution The centennial is relevant not only in terms of state ideology but also plays a significant role within academic research into Chinese society and culture This historic turning point likewise represents the symbolic and concrete linkages and tensions between tradition and modernity progress and conservatism traditional values and the demands for adjustment to contemporary societies The book shows that Chinese transition from tradition to modernity cannot be understood in a framework of a unified general model of society but rather through a more complex insight into the interrelations among elements of physical environment social structure philosophy history and culture
