Comedias Barbara Simerka, 1996 This anthology of new approaches to literary study takes its name from Lope de Vega's Arte nuevo de hacer comedias Like Lope's poem on poetics this volume also operates as a defense in the sense that many of the articles include a defense of the usefulness of literary theory in general and of their chosen approach in particular for enriching the study of the comedia In these essays it is the not quite new art of estudiar rather than hacer drama that is the central concern the contributors defending theoretical innovations approximately twenty years after James Parr in the pages of Hispania issued his challenge to Hispanists to update their approach This volume which combines innovative scholarship with the metacriticism that many critics advocate in all literary study is directed both the students of literature and to scholars who wish to expand their knowledge of the many different areas of theoretical inquiry that comediantes are currently exploring BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Berruezo-Sánchez, 2024-09-11 In this groundbreaking study Diana Berruezo Sánchez recovers key chapters in the history of Afro-Iberian diasporas by exploring the literary contributions and life experiences of black African communities and individuals in early modern Spain From the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries international trade involving chattel slavery led to significant populations of enslaved free and half manumitted black African women men and children in the Iberian Peninsula These demographic changes transformed Spain's urban and social landscapes In exploring Spain's role in the transatlantic slave trade and its effects on cultural forms of the period Berruezo Sánchez examines a broad range of texts and unearths new documents relating to black African poets performers and black confraternities Her discoveries evince the broad yet largely disregarded literary and artistic impact of the African diaspora in early modern Spain expanding the scope of linguistic practices beyond habla de negros and creating space for early modern black poets in the Spanish literary canon These textual sources challenge established understandings of black Africans and black African history in early modern Spain They show how black Africans exerted significant cultural agency by collectively contributing to and shaping the literary texts of the period including those of the popular genre villancicos de negros and by developing artistic traditions as musicians dancers and poets As both creators and consumers of cultural forms black African men and women navigated a restrictive coercive slave society yet negotiated their own physical and cultural spaces
