Orientalism Modernism And The American Poem:

Orientalism, Modernism, and the American Poem Robert Kern, 2009-03-19 Orientalism Modernism and the American Poem is a critical and historical interpretation of Oriental influences on American modernist poetry Kern equates Fenollosa and Pound's discovery of Chinese writing with the American pursuit of a natural language for poetry what Emerson had termed the language of nature Through analysis and contextualization Kern sheds light on the three contemporary nexuses of his search the cultural study of Orientalism and the West the evolution of Indo European linguistic theory and the intellectual tradition of American modernist poetry Transatlantic Modernism and the US Lecture Tour Robert Volpicelli, 2021 A study of the twentieth century transatlantic literary lecture tour with a focus on the role that this circuit played in the formation of transatlantic modernism by following a diverse group of authors Oscar Wilde W B Yeats Rabindranath Tagore Gertrude Stein and W H Auden The Emergence of Buddhist American Literature John Whalen-Bridge, Gary Storhoff, 2009-06-11 The encounter between Buddhism and American literature has been a powerful one for both parties While Buddhism fueled the Beat movement's resounding critique of the United States as a spiritually dead society Beat writers and others have shaped how Buddhism has been presented to and perceived by a North American audience Contributors to this volume explore how Asian influences have been adapted to American desires in literary works and Buddhist poetics or how Buddhist practices emerge in literary works Starting with early aesthetic theories of Ernest Fenollosa made famous but also distorted by Ezra Pound the book moves on to the countercultural voices associated with the Beat movement and its friends and heirs such as Ginsberg Kerouac Snyder Giorno Waldman and Whalen The volume also considers the work of contemporary American writers of color influenced by Buddhism such as Maxine Hong Kingston Charles Johnson and Lan Cao An interview with Kingston is included The Hypothetical Mandarin Sympathy, Modernity, and Chinese Pain Eric Hayot, 2009-11-05 Why has the West for so long and in so many different ways expressed the idea that the Chinese have a special relationship to cruelty and to physical pain What can the history of that idea and its expressions teach us about the politics of the West's contemporary relation to China And what does it tell us about the philosophy of modernity The Hypothetical Mandarin is in some sense a history of the Western imagination It is also a history of the interactions between Enlightenment philosophy of globalization of human rights and of the idea of the modern Beginning with Bianchon and Rastignac's discussion of whether the former would if he could obtain a European fortune by killing a Chinese mandarin in Balzac's Le Pere Goriot 1835 the book traces a series of literary and historical examples in which Chinese life and European sympathy seem to hang in one another's balance Hayot's wide ranging discussion draws on accounts of torture on medical case studies travelers tales photographs plasticized corpses polemical broadsides watercolors and on oil paintings His analyses show that the historical connection between sympathy and humanity and indeed between sympathy and reality has tended to refract with a remarkable frequency through the lens called China and why the story of the West's Chinese pain goes to the heart of the relation between language and the body and the social experience of the modern human being Written in an ebullient prose The Hypothetical Mandarin demonstrates how the network that intertwines China sympathy and modernity continues to shape the economic and human experience Convergence of East-West Poetics Zhanghui Yang,2024-07-23 The present book examines William Carlos Williams s negotiation with cultural modes and systems of the Chinese landscape tradition in his landscape writing Focusing on Walliams s landscape modes of landscape with out infused emotions the book builds a linkage between their interactions with Chinese landscape aesthetics and shows how these conversations helped shape Williams s cross cultural landscape poetics The exploration of Williams s experiment with the Chinese serene interplay of self and landscape the interfusion of scene and emotion an idea of seeing from the perspective of Wang Guowei s theory of jingjie and the poetic space of frustration and completion in the context of space and human geography expand the understanding of a cross cultural landscape tradition developed by Williams through bringing into focus the convergence of East West poetics Han Shan, Chan Buddhism and Gary Snyder's Ecopoetic Way Joan Qionglin Tan,2009-05-07 Presents a comparative study of the ninth century Chinese poet and recluse Han Shan Cold Mountain and Gary Snyder an American poet and environmental activist This book explains how Chan Buddhism has the potential to be recognized as an important voice in contemporary ecopoetry Harriet Jacobs and Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Deborah M. Garfield,Rafia Zafar,1996 Harriet Jacobs has not until recently enjoyed sustained scholarly analysis This anthology presents a far ranging compendium of literary and cultural scholarship taking its place as the primary resource for students and teachers Pacific Rim Modernisms Mary Ann Gillies,Helen Sword,Steven G. Yao,2009-01-01 Pacific Rim Modernisms explores the complex ways that writers artists and intellectuals of the Pacific Rim have contributed to modernist culture literature and identity T.S. Eliot, Poetry, and Earth Etienne Terblanche,2016-05-12 T S Eliot enjoyed a profound relationship with Earth Criticism of his work does not suggest that this exists in his poetic oeuvre Writing into this gap Etienne Terblanche demonstrates that Eliot presents Earth as a process in which humans immerse themselves The Waste Land and Four Quartets in particular re locate the modern reader towards mindfulness of Earth s continuation and one s radical becoming within that process But what are the potential implications for ecocriticism Based on its careful reading of the poems from a new material perspective this book shows how vital it has become for ecocriticism to be skeptical about the extent of its skepticism to follow instead the twentieth century s most important poet who at the end of searing skepticism finds affirmation of Earth art and real presence Before Windrush Pallavi Rastogi,Jocelyn Fenton Stitt,2009-10-02 Before Windrush Recovering an Asian and Black Literary Heritage within Britain is an important intervention in the growing field of Black British literary studies Composed of essays on non white writers living in or writing about Britain in the period before the post WW II wave of immigration the anthology testifies to the existence of a British nation that has been multiracial and multicultural for centuries Through an analysis of well known figures such as Mary Prince Mary Seacole C L R James and

Mulk Raj Anand as well as forgotten writers such as Helena Wells Lucy Peacock Olive Christian Malvery Bhagvat Singh Jee T B Pandian and Lao She among others the essays in Before Windrush shed light on an understudied aspect of Britain its racial and ethnic complexity during the colonial period The authors discussed here whose work originates in and borrows from Romantic Victorian and Modernist conventions challenge the implicit whiteness of English writing by showing the literary legacy of the Asian and black presence in Britain Before Windrush places this hidden literary history of Asian and black literature within the social and cultural contexts of its British production Contributors include Julie Codell Pallavi Rastogi W F Santiago Valles Jocelyn Fenton Stitt Michelle Taylor Stoyan Tchapravov Margaret Trenta and Anne Witchard
