Portable World:

Wireless World, 1929 A Brief History of Portable Literature Enrique Vila-Matas, 2015-06-04 A reader's fictional tour of the art and lives of some of the great 20th century Surrealists. An author a version of Vila Matas himself presents a short history of a secret society the Shandies who are obsessed with the concept of portable literature. The society is entirely imagined but in this rollicking intellectually playful book its members include writers and artists like Marcel Duchamp, Aleister Crowley, Witold Gombrowicz, Federico Garcia Lorca, Man Ray and Georgia O'Keefe. The Shandies meet secretly in apartments, hotels and cafes all over Europe to discuss what great literature really is, brief, not too serious, penetrating the depths of the mysterious. We witness the Shandies having adventures in stationary submarines, underground caverns, African backwaters and the cultural capitals of Europe.

However, these real magic items are different from those that appear in the realm of fantasy. They are gateways to certain qualities: spirits and deities but not items that give a person a power they could not otherwise obtain. Such magical objects include talismans, magic rings, magic wands, voodoo dolls, and the spiritus familiaris, a self-made spirit as well as statues, temples, sweat lodges, haunted houses, pyramids, power places, crop circles, and homeopathic globules. These magical objects are neither indispensable; you can achieve everything without them, nor useless; they can help with many things; they are tools that can facilitate many things in magic. HWM, 2007-10 Singapore's leading tech magazine gives its readers the power to decide with its informative articles and in-depth reviews. LIFE, 1961-12-01 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century. Braxton, 1999 With the continued expansion of the literary canon, multicultural works of modern literary fiction and autobiography have assumed an increasing importance for students and scholars of American literature. This exciting new series assembles key documents and criticism concerning these works that have so recently become central components of the American literature curriculum. Each casebook will reprint documents relating to the work's historical context and reception, present the best in critical essays, and when possible, feature an interview of the author. The series will provide for the first time an accessible forum in which readers can come to a fuller understanding of these contemporary masterpieces and the unique aspects of American ethnic, racial, or cultural experience that they so ably portray. Perhaps more than any other single text, Maya Angelou's I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings helped to establish the mainstream status of the renaissance in black women's writing. This casebook presents a variety of critical approaches to this classic autobiography along with an exclusive interview with Angelou, conducted specially for this volume, and a unique drawing of her childhood surroundings in Stamps, Arkansas, drawn by the Angelou herself. Atlantic Voyages John McAleer, 2023 A history of the East India Company told through experiences of everyday life on the ocean: maritime travel, shipboard conditions, foreign encounters, islands, and ports of call.
