Reading Edith Wharton Through a Darwinian Lens Judith P. Saunders, 2014-01-10 Beneath the polished surface of the genteel environments delineated in Wharton's fiction characters are competing fiercely for desirable mates questing for social status and resources and plotting ruthlessly to advance their relatives fortunes in life This book identifies these and other evolutionary issues central to her fiction demonstrating their significance in terms of character setting plot and theme Connections to existing Wharton criticism are made throughout the book so that readers can see how an evolutionary perspective enriches refutes or reconfigures insights derived from other critical approaches From Fidelity to History

Anne-Marie Scholz, 2013-04-01 Scholarly approaches to the relationship between literature and film ranging from the traditional focus upon fidelity to more recent issues of intertextuality all contain a significant blind spot a lack of theoretical and methodological attention to adaptation as an historical and transnational phenomenon This book argues for a historically informed approach to American popular culture that reconfigures the classically defined adaptation phenomenon as a form of transnational reception Focusing on several case studies including the films Sense and Sensibility 1995 and The Portrait of a Lady 1997 and the classics The Third Man 1949 and The Bridge on the River Kwai 1957 the author demonstrates the ways adapted literary works function as social and cultural events in history and how these become important sites of cultural negotiation and struggle The Scarlet Letter Nathaniel Hawthorne, 2002 In addition to the text of the first edition of the novel the New Riverside Edition of The Scarlet Letter contains a wide variety of contextual materials and scholarly essays Contexts includes additional writings and letters by Hawthorne as well as essays on the New England sources of the novel and the novel's publication history Criticism contains early reviews of the novel and critical readings from the 19th century such as an excerpt from Henry James book Hawthorne to the present
