Poets of the Chinese Revolution Gregor Benton,Feng Chongyi,2019-06-25 How poetry and revolution meshed in Red China The Chinese Revolution which fought its way to power seventy years ago was a complex and protracted event in which groups and individuals with different hopes and expectations for the Revolution competed although in the end Mao came to rule over the others Its veterans included many poets four of whom feature in this anthology All wrote in the classical style but their poetry was no less diverse than their politics Chen Duxiu led China's early cultural awakening before founding the Communist Party in 1921 Mao led the Party to power in 1949 Zheng Chaolin Chen Duxiu's disciple and like him a convert to Trotskyism spent thirty four years in jail first under the Nationalists and then under their Maoist nemeses The guerrilla leader Chen Yi wrote flamboyant and descriptive poems in mountain bivouacs or the heat of battle Poetry has played a different role in China and in Chinese Revolution from in the West it is collective and collaborative But in life the four poets in this collection were entangled in opposition and even bitter hostility towards one another Together the four poets illustrate the complicated relationship between Communist revolution and Chinese cultural tradition     Report from Peking D.W. Chinese Propaganda on Tibet Warren

W. Smith Jr.,2023-04-11 China has produced a tremendous amount of propaganda justifying its invasion and occupation of Tibet This book reproduces excerpts from some of the most notable of these articles along with a critical analysis The primary themes of Chinese propaganda about Tibet are that Tibet has always been a part of China thus there is no question about Tibetan independence or a Chinese invasion of Tibet that the traditional Tibetan social system was a dark cruel savage feudal hell on earth from which Tibetans welcomed their liberation by the CCP and that China has selflessly assisted Tibetan social and economic development ever since while taking nothing from Tibet China denies the legitimacy of any issues of Tibetan nationalism self determination or any desire by Tibetans for an independent political existence Despite China s claims about the happiness of the Tibetan people Tibetan resistance has continued These excerpts from propaganda articles and documents reveal the political and cultural ideology of the Chinese as they attempt to maintain and justify their control over Tibet
