Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people A E s Biography best selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre But where does one begin Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10 000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians Each entry includes a brief profile autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals

Where Are You From? Barbara Fahnrbauer,2015-06-19 Albert Fahnrbauer vows on his Mothers deathbed that he will dedicate his life to the service of Mankind He will develop a new scientific system of portraiture through color matched to each personality a portrait that reveals a blueprint toward a radiant better life But he has a problem His portraits are terrible Nobody wants them He marries Barbara a fellow art student with the understanding she will help him develop his system They will have no children He wants her to join him every step of the way painting only with his scientific mixtures Unfortunately Barbara prefers her free spirited messy way of painting Her portraits sell but she cheats on his system Volume 2 opens when they leave Florida for Atlanta GA They buy 14 acres on a hilltop Albert is thrilled with the view all the way to Atlanta beyond the trees Barbara is appalled at the crappy old house no hot water and a bathroom outside on the porch They are both city people with romantic ideas They want to live off the land milk goats and grow vegetables They have no farming experience whatsoever They make hilarious mistakes suffer emotional traumas over crops and animals endure periods of starvation moments of euphoria and violent arguments over ways to paint It is also the time of Civil Rights the 1950s Their landlord visits them at Christmas with a K K Klan buddy The preacher politicians neighbors and customers oppose any change in the racial customs and treatment of Negro people Albert confronts them with his humanitarian philosophy All people have a unique and wonderful radiance of living color he tells them His system will prove it if only Barbara will use it So goes the story of their different personalities where each of them came from and how their backgrounds inspire damage and diverge throughout their lives together

A History of Russian Literature
Andrew Kahn, Mark Lipovetsky, Irina Reyfman, Stephanie Sandler, 2018-04-13 Russia possesses one of the richest and most admired literatures of Europe reaching back to the eleventh century A History of Russian Literature provides a comprehensive account of Russian writing from its earliest origins in the monastic works of Kiev up to the present day still rife with the creative experiments of post Soviet literary life The volume proceeds chronologically in five parts extending from Kievan Rus in the 11th century to the present day The coverage strikes a balance between extensive overview and in depth thematic focus Parts are organized thematically in chapters which a number of keywords that are important literary concepts that can serve as connecting motifs and case studies in depth discussions of writers institutions and texts that take the reader up close and personal Visual material also underscores the interrelation of the word and image at a number of points particularly significant in the medieval period and twentieth century The History addresses major continuities and discontinuities in the history of Russian literature across all periods and in particular brings out trans historical features that contribute to the notion of a national literature The volume s time range has the merit of identifying from the early modern period a vital set of national stereotypes and popular folklore about boundaries space Holy Russia and the charismatic king that offers culturally relevant material to later writers This volume delivers a fresh view on a series of key questions about Russia s literary history by providing new mappings of literary history and a narrative that pursues key concepts rather more than individual authorial careers This holistic narrative underscores the ways in which context and text are densely woven in Russian literature and demonstrates that the most exciting way to understand the canon and the development of tradition is through a discussion of the interrelation of major and minor figures historical events and literary politics literary theory and literary innovation

Lev Tolstoy in his life Gladkova L.V., 2015-12-02 The photo album is dedicated to the life of Lev Nikolaevich Tolstoy a great Russian writer His two most famous works the novels War and Peace and Anna Karenina are acknowledged as two of the greatest novels of all time and a pinnacle of realist fiction Many consider Tolstoy to have been one of the world s greatest novelists This book represents the history of his photos taken from 1900 to 1905 included This period of time was full of important events in the writer s life and in the current reality to which the writer was strongly responsive Most photos of Lev Tolstoy published in this album were taken by amateurs i e members of his family his friends and acquaintances

Picturing Russia's Men Allison Leigh,2020-09-17 Winner of the Heldt Prize for Best Book in Slavic East European and Eurasian Women's and Gender Studies 2021 There was a discontent among Russian men in the nineteenth century that sometimes did not stem from poverty loss or the threat of war but instead arose from trying to negotiate the paradoxical prescriptions for masculinity which characterized the era Picturing Russia's Men takes a vital new approach to this topic within masculinity and art historical studies by investigating the dissatisfaction that developed from the breakdown in prevailing conceptions of manhood outside of the usual Western European and American contexts By exploring how Russian painters depicted gender norms as they were evolving over the course of the century each chapter shows how artworks provide unique insight into not only those qualities that were supposed to predominate but actually did in lived practice Drawing on a wide variety of source material including previously untranslated letters journals and contemporary criticism the book explores the deep structures of masculinity to reveal the conflicting desires and aspirations of men in the period In so doing readers are introduced to Russian artists such as Karl Briullov Pavel Fedotov Alexander Ivanov Ivan Kramskoi and Ilya Repin all of whom produced masterpieces of realist art in dialogue with paintings made in Western European artistic centers The result is a more culturally discursive account of art making in the nineteenth century one that challenges some of the enduring myths of masculinity and provides a fresh interpretive history of what constitutes modernism in the history of art

Valentin Serov Dmitri V. Sarabianov,2012-01-17 Among the young peredvizhniki who joined the World of Art group the most brilliant portraitist was Valentin Serov Like many of his contemporaries he delighted in painting out of doors and some of his most appealing portraits such as Girl with Peaches Girl in Sunlight and In Summer owe their naturalness to their setting or to the interplay of sunlight and shadows Indeed Serov regarded them as studies rather than portraits giving them descriptive titles that omitted the sitter's name The subject of Girl with Peaches painted when Serov was only twenty two was in fact Mamontov's daughter Vera The model for In Summer was Serov's wife When only six years old Serov began to display signs of artistic talent At nine years old Repin acted as his teacher and mentor giving him lessons in his studio in Paris then let Serov work with him in Moscow almost like an apprentice Eventually Repin sent him to study with Pavel Chistiakov the teacher of many of the World of Art painters including Nesterov and Vrubel Chistiakov was to become a close friend Because Serov s career spanned such a long period his style and subject matter vary considerably ranging from voluptuous society portraits the later ones notable for their grand style and sumptuous dresses to sensitive studies of children Utterly different from any of these is the famous nude study of the dancer Ida Rubinstein in tempera and charcoal on canvas which he painted towards the end of his life Although Serov s early style has much in common with the French Impressionists he did not become acquainted with their work until after he had painted pictures such as Girl with Peaches
