Portraits Helen Parks, 1989 Sand and Sagebrush Ellie Derrick Lewis, 2019-07-26 In 1914 a young married couple leaves the lush Willamette Valley to participate in the last land give away in the US The newspaper headlines and tales of success lead them to the harsh desert valley of southern Oregon Exploring Oregon's Historic House Museums Kathleen M. Wiederhold, 2000 The featured houses provide glimpses of people in places where they lived They showcase both ordinary and unusual objects that Oregonians used in everyday life They also reflect on the course of the state's settlement and growth This engaging guide explains these dwellings and tells their stories For history buffs old house enthusiasts antique aficionados and cultural tourists this book is an excellent introduction to Oregon's heritage houses BOOK JACKET

American Far West in the Twentieth Century Earl S. Pomeroy, 2008-10-21 In this richly insightful survey that represents the culmination of decades of research a leading western specialist argues that the unique history of the American West did not end in the year 1900 as is commonly assumed but was shaped as much if not more by events and innovations in the twentieth century Earl Pomeroy gathers copious information on economic political social intellectual and business issues thoughtfully evaluates it and draws a new and more nuanced portrait of the West than has ever been depicted before Pomeroy mines extensive published and unpublished sources to show how the post 1900 West charted a path that was influenced by but separate from the rest of the country and the world He deals not only with the West's transition from an agricultural to an urban region but also with the important contributions of minority racial and ethnic groups and women in that transformation Pomeroy describes a modern West increasingly urban transnational and multicultural that has overcome much of the isolation that challenged it at an earlier time His final book is nothing short of the definitive source on that West
