Rebecca Rupp presents a structured plan to ensure that your children will learn what they need to know when they need to know it from preschool through high school. Based on the traditional pre-K through 12th grade structure, Home Learning Year by Year features the integral subjects to be covered within each grade, Standards for knowledge that should be acquired by your child at each level, Recommended books to use as texts for every subject, Guidelines for the importance of each topic which knowledge is essential and which is best for more expansive study based on your child's personal interests, Suggestions for how to sensitively approach less academic subjects such as sex education and physical fitness. Captioned Video & Vocabulary Learning, 1993 IPTVisions, 1997 The Community of the Book John Young Cole, This is a selective listing of organizations that promote books and reading, administer literacy projects and encourage the study of books. Compiled by Carren O. Kaston, The Community of the Book focuses on national programs of special interest to the Center for the Book in the Library of Congress but should be of use to the entire book community. The emphasis is on organizations in the United States where recently there has been renewed interest in educational reform in literacy and in the future of publishing. The assumption underlining this unusual directory is that a community of the book does exist and that it can be mobilized to keep books and reading central in the life of Democratic societies. The listings provide a richly detailed account of 89 major resource centers providing names of directors, addresses, telephone numbers and founding dates. In addition, each listing discusses the purposes of the organization, examples of its activities, publications sponsored and sources of fiscal support. In short, the volume is intended to serve as a national catalyst for stimulating public interest in books in particular and reading in general. Cole provides a pellucid opening essay on the subject, Is There a Community of the Book? What is surprising is not his clear affirmative answer so much as the closely argued historical and analytical study of how this community has been deepened through the conscious activities of The Library of Congress. The work concludes with a brief but valuable guide to other resources ranging from publishing, broadcasting, bookselling, libraries and book collecting and culture. Hawaii Documents: Cumulative Index Hawaii Documents Center, 1993 Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 2000 Blacks on Television George H.
