Reading German Humanities:

Reading German in the Humanities Wolf Gewehr, Wolff A. Von Schmidt, 1972      Reading German: Humanities Jörg Matthias-Roche, 2000 The Reading German texts and CD ROM materials were developed to aid students in acquiring a reading knowledge of German Through the use of these materials students are expected to obtain a level of proficiency sufficient for understanding scientific and scholarly material written in German The course is divided into two levels Reading German Introduction is an introductory course that covers reading strategies reading grammar resources and basic vocabulary It leads to a second year reading knowledge of German in 12 weeks The Humanities Business Economics Chemistry and Music books lead to a reading knowledge of German comparable to fourth year language courses and teach highly specialised language skills in the student s individual area of interest The CD ROM incorporates guided and independent study sections that deal with topics from Reading German Introduction and fosters autonomous learning The programs are designed to make efficient use of the students subject matter knowledge thus enabling them to deal with challenging and highly relevant topics from the beginning without the prerequisite 2 3 years of very basic language commonly taught in introductory courses As well the programs accommodate five different levels of text difficulty to suit the German language skills of individual students The course materials encourage students to learn at their own pace and progress faster to higher levels of proficiency than is otherwise achieved through traditional reading courses      Global Humanities Reader Alvis Dunn, James Perkins, Katherine C. Zubko, Keya Maitra, 2022-06-01 The Global Humanities Reader is a collaboratively edited collection of primary sources with student centered support features It serves as the core curriculum of the University of North Carolina Asheville s almost sixty year old interdisciplinary Humanities Program Its three volumes Engaging Ancient Worlds and Perspectives Volume 1 Engaging Premodern Worlds and Perspectives Volume 2 and Engaging Modern Worlds and Perspectives Volume 3 offer accessible ways to explore facets of human subjectivity and interconnectedness across cultures times and places In highlighting the struggles and resilient strategies for surviving and thriving from multiple perspectives and positionalities and through diverse voices these volumes course correct from humanities textbooks that remain Western centric One of the main features of the The Global Humanities Reader is a sustained and nuanced focus on cultivating the ability to ask questions to inquire while enhancing culturally aware reflective and interdisciplinary engagements with the materials The editorial team created a thoroughly interactive text with the following unique features that work together to actualize student success Cross cultural historical introductions to each volume Comprehensive and source specific timelines highlighting periods events and people around the world An introduction for each source with bolded key terms and questions to facilitate active engagement Primed and Ready questions PARs questions just before and after a reading that activate students own knowledge and skills Inquiry Corner questions consisting of four types Content Comparative Critical and Connection Beyond the Classroom explore how ideas discussed in sources can apply to broader social contexts such as job career project teams or professional communities
