Stratton, 1995-12-01 Out of Eden contributes towards conversations about interpreting scripture Rather than adopting traditional views creation and fall or growth this study integrates literary critical theories and feminist scholarship to read the Genesis narrative in relation to concerns of contemporary communities The question of how we might engage the interpretative process and the rhetorical power of texts as we live our lives out of Eden is addressed Stratton argues that the interpretation of Genesis 2 3 matters that there are consequences for the actions we take on the basis of our interpretations and that we should enter the interpretative process only with care Foregrounding the Role of Gender in the Interpretation of Meaning : A Study of Select Women's Fiction Dr. Mrs. F. Mary Judy Benno, M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D., 2024-05-12 Foregrounding the Role of Gender in the Interpretation of Meaning A Study of Select Women s Fiction delves into the intricate ways gender shapes the understanding and interpretation of literary texts Through a meticulous examination of select women s fiction Dr F Mary Judy Benno brings to light the nuanced perspectives and unique experiences that female authors contribute to literature This groundbreaking work challenges traditional literary criticism by highlighting the pivotal role gender plays in the construction of meaning offering fresh insights and a deeper appreciation of women s narratives The Future of Literary Theory Ralph

Famous Last Words Alison Booth, 1993 Famous Last Words traces a broad historical transition from the 1840s to the 1980s from the more rigid dichotomy of the Victorian novel in which good women must marry and fallen women die to the more open alternatives of twentieth century fiction which sometimes permit the independent female protagonist to survive and occasionally allow alternative constructions of gender as well as plot Each essay treats a narrative novel novella or novel poem by a single author in light of conventions of closure and of gender in historical context The contributors recover forgotten texts revise our understanding of women writers once successful but now somewhat marginalized and give voice to cultural others Works by the already canonized George Eliot are reassessed and the representation of women in the canonical novels of male writers William Thackeray and Henry James is explored Female Impersonation Carol-Anne Tyler, 2013-05-24 A feminist and psychoanalytic investigation of the contemporary fascination with impersonation The questions raised by female impersonations in a wide range of contemporary media are considered Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol, Diane Price Herndl, 1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism Woman and Modernity Carolyn Biddy A. Martin, 2018-08-06 Woman and Modernity provides what previous studies of Salom have in large part neglected to offer a sustained investigation of the literariness of Salom's texts and of Salom as a significant reader of modernity Focusing on key encounters in Salom's writings such as her exchanges with Nietzsche Ibsen Rilke Freud and late nineteenth century middle class German feminists such as Dohm and Stucker Martin approaches Salom's life and work as a series of strategic negotiations concerning the place of women and the meaning of femininity Mapping a Tradition Sam Haigh, 2000 In recent years critical interest in francophone literature has become increasingly pronounced In the case of the French Caribbean the work of several writers Aime Cesaire Frantz Fanon Edouard Glissant and Patrick Chamoiseau for example has gained international recognition and has formed a vital part of more general debates on history culture language and identity in the post colonial world The majority of such writers however have been male and perhaps recalling the preference that France has always shown for the island have come in large part from Martinique Mapping a Tradition Francophone Women s Writing from Guadeloupe aims to explore a different side of francophone Caribbean writing through the examination of selected novels by Jacqueline Manicom Michele Lacrosil Maryse Conde Simone Schwarz Bart and Dany Bebel Gisler Placing the work of these writers in the context of that of their better known male counterparts this study argues that it has provided an important mode of intervention in and disruption of a literary tradition which has failed to address questions of sexual difference and has often excluded issues relating to French Caribbean women At the same time this study suggests that Guadeloupean women s writing of the last thirty years may be seen to constitute a tradition in itself replete with its own influences and inheritances At once within and outside the dominant tradition women s writing from Guadeloupe and Martinique has come to occupy a position at the forefront of contemporary efforts to expand and redefine a still burgeoning corpus of literary and theoretical work
