Accounting for Common Costs Murray C. Wells, 2006 During the 1960s and 1970s a remarkable series of books was produced by academic staff in the field of accounting at the University of Sydney It was a period when academic research was largely analytical rather than empirically based For the most part the interests of academics at Sydney were largely directed at questioning the status quo either in the way accounting or auditing was practiced or in the conventional wisdom expressed in textbooks of the time The Sydney Accounting Classics series reflects the diversity of interests of the Sydney school at that time It also recognises the tremendous impact of the foundation professor of accounting R J Chambers This reprint series ensures that the ideas developed during this period remain available to new generations of scholars and researchers The Sydney Accounting Classics series is an initiative of the Accounting Foundation in association with Sydney University Press Accounting for Common Costs The editor of the 1978 edition called this a seminal work in one of the most difficult allocation problems in accounting Accounting for Common Costs contains a comprehensive historical study of the allocation of costs in accounting practice as well as discussion of points of difference and the need to promote economic efficiency
