Savitz, Britnie Delinger Kane, 2023 It is vital for educators to be aware of how traumatic experiences affect today's students yet few teachers learn the tools needed to successfully teach these students This book highlights how English Language Arts teachers who are typically not licensed or specifically trained to work with trauma issues can design and implement instruction that helps students see that they are supported This book provides specific strategies for teaching literacy based on the authors extensive knowledge and experience in trauma sensitive instruction adolescent literacy and culturally responsive sustaining pedagogies The authors show how to support middle and high school students with specific literacy practices reading speaking listening and writing that build resilience Trauma Sensitive Literacy Instruction is for the many teachers who are unsure how to invite students and their traumas into classroom instruction and embed critical discussions and learning within their teaching practices and pedagogy It will help ELA teachers navigate student trauma in a way that empowers both students and teachers Book Features Responds to research that consistently shows how schools are often places that marginalize and sometimes traumatize or retraumatize children Offers specific information related to literature writing discussion and inquiry activities focused on various traumatic experiences Provides rationales and research along with examples teacher vignettes and steps for incorporating relevant practices in classrooms grades 6 12 In this book ELA teachers will find actionable pedagogical practices toward the transformative teaching trauma demands and the respect care and support along the way that ELA educators need and deserve From the Foreword by Elizabeth Dutro professor University of Colorado Boulder

Aesthetic Apprehensions Lene M. Johannessen, Jena Habegger-Conti, 2021-01-12 Aesthetic Apprehensions Silences and Absences in False Familiarities is a scholarly conversation about encounters between habitual customs of reading and seeing and their ruptures and ossifications In closely connected discourses the thirteen essays collected here set out to carefully probe the ways our aesthetic immersions are obfuscated by deep seated epistemological and ideological apprehensions by focusing on how the tropology carried by silence absence and false familiarity crystallize to define the gaps that open up As they figure in the subtitle of this volume the tropes may seem straightforward enough but a closer examination of their function in relation to social cultural and political assumptions and gestalts reveal troubling oversights Aesthetic Apprehensions comes to name the attempt at capturing the outlier meanings residing in habituated receptions as well as the uneasy relations that result from aesthetic practices already in place emphasizing the kinds of thresholds of sense and sensation which occasion rupture and creativity Such after all is the promise of the threshold of the liminal to encourage our leap into otherness for then to find ourselves and our sensing again and anew in novel comprehensions
