So You Think You're Ready for Marriage? B. Wright-Jones, 2018-12-21 Are you looking to do things God's way while waiting to be married If you answered yes then this book is for you Are you still waiting for your husband and the wait is becoming too much Do you desire to be married but it seems like you have been waiting forever for God to answer your prayer I don't claim to be an expert about marriage but if my story can possibly help someone else then I don't mind sharing This book is dedicated to every woman seeking knowledge from a married woman who has been through the waiting and different trials in her own marriage but still standing and trusting God while helping others If you're single dating engaged or newly married then this book is for you If you desire to be married and would like to do it God's way know that God has a good plan I'm sharing my story of how I didn't always do things right and now God is using me to help other women who are waiting to be married The wait is not always easy but sometimes very necessary We tend to forget that God sees everything and if you are still waiting to be married know that God is fully aware of the why behind it Marriage goes through different seasons and each spouse will evolve differently When you say that you're ready for marriage make sure it's for a lifetime because marriage is a lifetime covenant I went into marriage very naive and not very realistic in my expectations This book is designed to prepare you so that you go in your marriage the right way and have an opportunity of having a successful marriage We all need a little help and that's why I'm sharing my story to help you prepare for what God has in store for you
