The Real Mrs. Miniver Ysenda Maxtone Graham, WLA ,2009 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003 Visceral Cosmopolitanism Mica Nava,2007-10-15 Renowned cultural theorist Mica Nava makes a significant contribution to the study of cosmopolitanism by exploring everyday English urban cosmopolitanism and foregrounding the gendered imaginative and empathetic aspects of positive engagement with cultural and racial difference By looking at a wide range of texts events and biographical narratives she traces cosmopolitanism from its marginal status at the beginning of the twentieth century to its relative normalisation by century s end Case studies include the promotion of cosmopolitanism by Selfridges before the first world war relationships between white English women and other men Jews and black GIs during the 1930s and 1940s literary cinematic and social science representations of migrants in postcolonial Britain and Diana and Dodi s interracial romance in the 1990s In the final chapter the author draws on her own complex family history to illustrate the contemporary cosmopolitan London experience Scholars have tended to ignore the oppositional cultures of antiracism and social inclusivity This groundbreaking study redresses this imbalance and offers a sophisticated account of the uneven history of vernacular cosmopolitanism

A Rose for Mrs. Miniver Michael Troyan,1998-11-05 In this first ever biography of Greer Garson Michael Troyan sweeps away the many myths that even today veil her life The true origins of her birth her fairy tale discovery in Hollywood and her career struggles at Metro Goldwyn Mayer are revealed for the first time Garson combined an everywoman quality with grace charm and refinement She won the Academy Award in 1941 for her role in Mrs Miniver and for the next decade she reigned as the queen of MGM Co star Christopher Plummer remembered Here was a siren who had depth strength dignity and humor who could inspire great trust suggest deep intellect and whose misty languorous eyes melted your heart away Garson earned a total of seven Academy Award nominations for Best Actress and fourteen of her films premiered at Radio City Music Hall playing for a total of eighty four weeks a record never equaled by any other actress She was a central figure in the golden age of the studios working with legendary performers Clark Gable Marlon Brando Elizabeth Taylor Errol Flynn Joan Crawford Robert Mitchum Debbie Reynolds and Walter Pidgeon Garson s experiences offer a fascinating glimpse at the studio system in the years when stars were closely linked to a particular studio and moguls such as L B Mayer broke or made careers With the benefit of exclusive access to studio production files personal letters and diaries and the cooperation of her family Troyan explores the triumphs and tragedies of her personal life a story more colorful than any role she played on screen

War, Literature, and the Arts ,2009 The History of British Women's Writing, 1920-1945 M. Joannou,2016-01-03 Featuring sixteen contributions from recognized authorities in their respective fields this superb new mapping of women s writing ranges from feminine middlebrow novels to Virginia Woolf s modernist aesthetics from women s literary journalism to crime fiction and from West End drama to the literature of Scotland Ireland and Wales

What Dreams Were Made Of Sean Griffin,2011-04-28 Humphrey Bogart Abbott and Costello Judy Garland and

Mickey Rooney John Wayne Rita Hayworth and Betty Grable Images of these film icons conjure up a unique moment in cinema and history one of optimism and concern patriotism and cynicism What Dreams Were Made Of examines the performers who helped define American cinema in the 1940s a decade of rapid and repeated upheaval for Hollywood and the United States Through insightful discussions of key films as well as studio publicity and fan magazines the essays in this collection analyze how these actors and actresses helped lift spirits during World War II whether in service comedies combat films or escapist musicals The contributors all major writers on the stars and movies of this period also explore how cultural shifts after the war forced many stars to adjust to new outlooks and attitudes particularly in film noir Together they represented the hopes and fears of a nation during turbulent times enacting on the silver screen the dreams of millions of moviegoers

Fiction of the New Statesman, 1913-1939 Bashir Abu-Manneh, 2011-10-10 Fiction of the New Statesman is the first study of the short stories published in the renowned British journal the New Statesman This book argues that New Statesman fiction advances a strong realist preoccupation with ordinary everyday life and shows how British domestic concerns have a strong hold on the working class and lower middle class imaginative output of this period

Invisible Stars Donna Halper, 2015-02-11 Invisible Stars was the first book to recognize that women have always played an important part in American electronic media The emphasis is on social history as the author skillfully explains how the changing role of women in different eras influenced their participation in broadcasting This is not just the story of radio stars or broadcast journalists but a social history of women both on and off the air Beginning in the early 1920s with the emergence of radio the book chronicles the ambivalence toward women in broadcasting during the 1930s and 1940s the gradual change in status of women in the 1950s and 1960s the increased presence of women in broadcasting in the 1970s and the successes of women in broadcasting in the 1980s and 1990s The second edition is expanded to include the social and political changes that occurred in the 2000s such as the growing number of women talk show hosts changing attitudes about women in leadership roles in business more about minority women in media and women in sports and women sports announcers The author addresses the question of whether women are in fact no longer invisible in electronic media She provides an assessment of where progress for women in society as well as broadcasting can be seen and where progress appears totally stalled

Nationalising Femininity Christine Gledhill, Gillian Swanson, 1996 What was the relation between gender and nation when the waiting woman was displaced by the mobile woman and homes were flattened by bombs What happened to notions of femininity sexual difference and class as women moved into the workplace and donned dungarees military uniforms and utility clothing

Strictly Confidential (for Young Girls) Alice. M. Hustad, 1944 Latin in Modern Fiction Henryk Hoffmann, 2021-07-06 The goal of this book is to prove that Latin is not a dead language by demonstrating how prevalent and strong it still is in modern Western culture In order to do so the author an English philologist with a long experience as a Latin educator catalogues explains and interprets Latin quotations and references in a multitude of twentieth and twenty first century literary works by primarily mainstream authors from Aldous Huxley to Saul Bellow to John Irving crime mystery writers from Raymond Chandler to Elizabeth George to Dennis Lehane and frontier western novelists from Emerson Hough to Larry McMurtry The three areas of fiction constituting the main scope of the book indicate the author's major interest and preference as well as the subject matter of his extensive research both prior and current the former related to his already published books The writers offering the most impressive contributions to the thesis are featured in the three parts of the main body those with lesser input are listed in the Appendix The prospective readers of the book include all Latin students and educators at the secondary and college levels worldwide Fashion on the Ration Julie Summers, 2015-03-05

In September 1939 just three weeks after the outbreak of war Gladys Mason wrote briefly in her diary about events in Europe Hitler watched German siege of Warsaw City in flames And she continued Had my wedding dress fitted Lovely For Gladys Mason and for thousands of women throughout the long years of the war fashion was not simply a distraction but a necessity and one they weren't going to give up easily In the face of bombings conscription rationing and ludicrous bureaucracy they maintained a sense of elegance and style with determination and often astonishing ingenuity From the young woman who avoided the dreaded forces bloomers by making knickers from military issue silk maps to Vogue's indomitable editor Audrey Withers who balanced lobbying government on behalf of her readers with driving lorries for the war effort Julie Summers weaves together stories from ordinary lives and high society to provide a unique picture of life during the Second World War As a nation went into uniform and women took on traditional male roles clothing and beauty began to reflect changing social attitudes For the first time fashion was influenced not only by Hollywood and high society but by the demands of industrial production and the pressing need to make do and mend Beautifully illustrated and full of gorgeous detail Fashion on the Ration lifts the veil on a fascinating era in British fashion Radio Programs, 1924-1984 Vincent Terrace, 2009-12-07

This is an encyclopedic reference work to 1 802 radio programs broadcast from the years 1924 through 1984 Entries include casts character relationships plots and storylines announcers musicians producers hosts starting and ending dates of the programs networks running times production information and when appropriate information on the radio show's adaptation to television Many hundreds of program openings and closings are included Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young's novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel Intermodernism Kristin Bluemel,2011-05-27 This collection of original critical essays newly available in paperback launches an ambitious long term project marking out a new period and style in twentieth century literary history Political and Social Issues in British Women's Fiction, 1928-1968 E. Maslen,2001-02-20 In Political and Social Issues in British Women's Fiction 1928-1968 Elizabeth Maslen reassesses fiction written by women between the granting of universal franchise and the advent of new wave feminism Through close readings of a wide range of novels Maslen analyses how writers chose to represent such issues as pacifism and the threat of fascism war race and class and gender exploring in the process how the writers priorities affect their decisions on how to write Discovering Women's History Deirdre Beddoe,2018-10-08 The highly practical guide introduces the reader to the main areas of British women's history education work family life sexuality and politics After an introduction to each topic detailed commentary is provided on a range of primary source material together with advice on further reading For the new edition the author has written a brand new chapter on how to choose a dissertation subject and the pitfalls to avoid Encyclopedia of Community DAVID LEVINSON,KAREN CHRISTENSEN,2003-06-30 Click Additional Materials for downloadable materials and samples Incredibly this is the first encyclopedia to focus on community as concept and experience so stands alone in its field as the one title any library must buy to cover this topic Essential for all readerships CHOICEA timely comprehensive and very welcome overview of a rich and rapidly growing field of inquiry Robert D Putnam Professor at Harvard University and author of Bowling Alone With every passing minute it becomes more and more apparent that our world is one community The Encyclopedia of Community serves as recognition of this trend and as a needed resource The four volume set not only explains the emerging buzz words of community such as social capital or civic engagement but also tells many stories of community institutions that work such as public libraries Sarah Ann Long Past President 1999 2000 American Library Association As we yearn to connect with our fellow citizens during these uncertain times we have a unique moment to encourage greater participation in our democracy and reinvigorate our communities The Encyclopedia of Community provides a timely diverse array of theories and practices that will help citizens understand the value of engaging together to make the critical choices that enrich the way we live learn work and govern in our local communities The Encyclopedia deserves a prime spot in the libraries homes and offices of all communities that want to invest in a brighter future for their residents and their children Nancy Kranich Past President of the American Library Association whose presidential theme was Libraries The Cornerstone of Democracy 2000 2001 American politicians often pair the word community with the word freedom to describe our basic values Yet though used constantly the word community is defined in
