The Gentleman's Magazine, and Historical Chronicle, for the Year ..., 1862 English Gothic Misericord Carvings Betsy Chunko-Dominguez, 2017-03-06 English Gothic Misericord Carvings: History from the Bottom Up by Betsy Chunko Dominguez is the first book to move beyond textual dependence and traditional iconographic analysis when examining misericords. It likewise builds the most thorough discussion to date of the relationship between the misericord's several potential audiences, including patron, craftsman, occupant of the seat, and modern viewer. Beyond the bounds of misericord studies, there are implications here for study of the relationship between center and margin in late medieval art, and indeed what constitutes center and margin as conceptual realms. Ultimately, this book attempts both to re-integrate the study of misericords into the study of Gothic art in general, and to re-center them in relation to our understanding of late medieval culture.

Cockpit Commander: A Navigator's Life Bruce Gibson, 2013-06-19 Previously self-published by the author, this book charts the course of a dramatic career as a Wing Commander. Living through one of the most dynamic periods in military and aviation development history, Bruce Gibson saw events play out from his elevated aerial position. His fascinating story will appeal to a wide audience, focussing as it does not only upon aviation concerns. From life as a mischievous child living in the East End of London to realising his true direction and joining the RAF Air Volunteer Reserves in 1937, and then the Royal Air Force and beyond into aviation ventures in a civilian capacity, his amusing observations and anecdotes provide the most colourful insight into life during the monochromatic blackout years of World War II and beyond. Many historical records and operational logs are available on the market to those looking for cold facts and statistical analyses of events; this account features the human tales, the anecdotes, and the spirit of camaraderie which characterised Gibson's experiences.
