Psychic Stories Joseph Lewis French,1920 The case for the psychic element in literature rests on a very old foundation it reaches back to the ancient masters the men who wrote the Greek tragedies Remorse will ever seem commonplace alongside the furies Ever and always the shadow of the supernatural invites pursues us As the art of literature has progressed it has grown along with it To day there is a whole new school of writers of Ghost Stories and the domain of the invisible is being invaded by explorers in many paths We do not believe so much more perhaps that is we do not so openly express a belief but art has finally and frankly claimed the supernatural for its own It only remains to be added that the present great interest in spiritualism and allied phenomena has made necessary the addition of certain material of a literal character which we believe will be found quite as interesting by the general reader as the purely literary portion of the book Schubert's Reputation from His Time to Ours Geoffrey Block,2024-12-30 The composer Franz Schubert 1797 1828 was not bereft of early advocates from Schumann Liszt and Mahler to Sir George Grove Brahms famously heralded Schubert as the true successor to Beethoven Nevertheless it was not until the end of the twentieth century that Schubert s major instrumental works finally and fully emerged from Beethoven s shadow Critics and scholars began to reinterpret Schubert s departures from Beethoven s formal and stylistic characteristics and to see these departures not as flaws but as strengths and hallmarks of a new paradigm Schubert s alternate constructions of masculine subjectivities first described by Schumann in 1838 parallel a developing appreciation for lyricism melody and song traits historically regarded as feminine Consequently Schubert s approach is increasingly viewed as innovative and divergent rather than defective and deviant Schubert s Reputation from His Time to Ours tells the story of how and why this has happened Kaddishe! Aharon Golub,Bennett W. Golub,2005

Aharon Golub is the kaddishel for his family the only son upon whose shoulders falls the responsibility to recite the prayer for the dead the Kaddish for his parents And as the kaddishel he honors his parents by remembering both the joys of his early childhood in Ludvipol and the hatred that sought to destroy Ludvipol and his childhood Aharon bears the burden of an entire generation of children who made promises to their parents promises that are relived at every Yahrzeit every anniversary of the death of their parents Never to bask in the luxury of forgetting
