The Life and Times of the Immigrant Nurse in the Usa Pauline Esoga,2020-05-06 This story takes place in a small village in Nigeria where Ngozi was born Her father a truck driver by profession with no formal education but had the opportunity of traveling outside his village town and country He knew the merits of having an education and career and made a decision to ensure that all his children become educated even against the cultural norm of his time Ngozi witnessed her father a man endowed with great wisdom and communication but struggled with communicating in English language both verbally and written On one such occasion he was denied his meager salary due to his inability to sign his pay check Ngozi was determined not to find herself in such situation will do anything within her strength good education She did not allow any challenges no matter what to stand between her and her goals Whenever any challenges came her way she would immediately and positively find an alternative means of forging ahead Her energy was geared toward always positive outcomes In her education marriage and career positive energy was all she required to overcome the difficulties and challenges before and after her migration to the USA to seek a better life A lot has been documented as to the reasons behind global nurse migration the pull and push factors but for her the decision to overcome obstacles as well as the strength and willingness to sacrifice and achieve her goals constitute the push behind her move Above all Ngozi believe that whatever successes or failures encountered in her migration her firm belief is that God had a purpose for her life This belief is rooted in Jeremiah 29 11 For I know the plans I have for you declares the LORD plans for welfare and not for evil to give you a future and a hope NIV

The History of French Revolution Hippolyte Taine,2020-12-17 The History of French Revolution in three volumes is a historical work by French historian Hippolyte Taine This period of far reaching social and political upheaval in France began in 1789 with the fall of the Bastille and held the country in turbulence for the next decade The Revolution overthrew the monarchy established a republic catalyzed violent periods of political turmoil and finally culminated in a dictatorship under Napoleon Conceived by Taine with the aim of understanding the France of his day his work achieved originality in its use of a long perspective to analyze the causes of the French Revolution In particular Taine denounced the artificiality of the revolution s political constructions the excessively abstract and rational spirit of Robespierre for example which in his mind violently contradicted the natural and slow growth of the institutions of a State For him the force of history is such that it is illusory to want to change a society Thus following the defeat of Sedan and the Commune Taine accuses the French Revolution of being the matrix of all evils which brought France into a cycle of decadence It is in particular the abstraction of the philosophy of the Enlightenment which is rejected
