sports human rights and social change hosted by the University of Toronto forty years after Mexico and eighty days before the Beijing Opening Ceremony The contributions to this volume capture the memories of activists who were on the ground using sport as a site for the struggle for human rights and provide scholarly examinations of past and current human rights movements in sport This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society Female Gladiators Sarah K. Fields, 2010-10-01 Female Gladiators is the first book to examine legal and social battles over the right of women to participate with men in contact sports The impetus to begin legal proceedings was the 1972 enactment of Title IX which prohibited discrimination in educational settings but it was the Equal Protection Clause of the U S Constitution and the equal rights amendments of state constitutions that ultimately opened doors Despite court rulings however many in American society resisted and continue to resist allowing girls in dugouts and other spaces traditionally defined as male territories Inspired women and girls began to demand access to the contact sports which society had previously deemed too strenuous or violent for them to play When the leagues continued to bar girls simply because they were not boys the girls went to court Sarah K Fields s Female Gladiators is the only book to examine the legal and social battles over gender and contact sport that continue to rage today History of South Africa Thula Simpson, 2022-09-01 South Africa was born in war has been cursed by crises and ruptures and today stands on a precipice once again This book explores the country s tumultuous journey from the Second Anglo Boer War to 2021 Drawing on diaries letters oral testimony and diplomatic reports Thula Simpson follows the South African people through the battles elections repression resistance strikes insurrections massacres crashes and epidemics that have shaped the nation Tracking South Africa s path from colony to Union and from apartheid to democracy Simpson documents the influence of key figures including Jan Smuts Nelson Mandela Steve Biko P W Botha Thabo Mbeki and Cyril Ramaphosa He offers detailed accounts of watershed events like the 1922 Rand Revolt the Defiance Campaign Sharpeville the Soweto uprising and the Marikana massacre He sheds light on the roles of Gandhi Churchill Castro and Thatcher and explores the impact of the World Wars the armed struggle and the Border War Simpson s history charts the post apartheid transition and the phases of ANC rule from Rainbow Nation to transformation state capture to New Dawn Along the way it reveals the divisions and solidarities of sport the nation s economic travails and painful pandemics from the Spanish flu to AIDS and Covid 19 The Guardian Index ,1997 The Dynamics of Modern Rugby Bruce Davies, Julien Baker, 2021-03-31 The modern game of rugby football has become gladiatorial whereby muscular athletic players are involved in a form of collision chess with sophisticated defences smothering the offensive skills that were at one time a more dominant feature of the game The contributors to this book consider the physical mental and nutritional demands of the game in its present form and how best to acquire these attributes in the most effective and efficient manner The inevitable injuries that are associated with collision are considered in terms of prevention and the most effective forms of treatment New concepts to improve exercise capacity game preparation and recovery are discussed in conjunction with the modern coaching theories of the game The possible changes to the rules are discussed by two outstanding International referees and the future vision for World Rugby is outlined by the President of World Rugby The Dynamics of Modern Rugby is both a unique and contemporary addition to the rugby literature and as such is essential reading for any student researcher coach sports scientist physiotherapist nutritionist or clinician with an interest in rugby Athlete-Centred Coaching Lynn Kidman,2010 Six coaches and three athletes involved in sports from international to school aged level share their knowledge stories and philosophies offering practical insights into how athlete centred coaching can be put into practice These successful athlete centred humanistic coaches inspire their athletes and encourage them to make informed decisions
