Ruinous Gardens:

The Gardens at Colchester Royal Grammar School Trevor Hearn, 2014-07 This book follows the journey of the development of the gardens at Colchester Royal Grammar School from 1853 when the school moved to its present site in Lexden Road to the beautiful landscaped grounds of today It explores the transformations that have taken place and describes some of the evocative plants to be found within the gardens In and Of the Mediterranean Michelle M.

Hamilton, Nuria Silleras-Fernandez, 2021-04-30 The Iberian Peninsula has always been an integral part of the Mediterranean world from the age of Tartessos and the Phoenicians to our own era and the Union for the Mediterranean The cutting edge essays in this volume examine what it means for medieval and early modern Iberia and its people to be considered as part of the Mediterranean Waste William Viney, 2014-05-22 Why are people so interested in what they and others throw away

This book shows how this interest in what we discard is far from new it is integral to how we make build and describe our lived environment As this wide ranging new study reveals waste has been a polarizing topic for millennia and has been treated as a rich resource by artists writers philosophers and architects Drawing on the works of Giorgio Agamben T S Eliot Jacques Derrida Martin Heidegger James Joyce Bruno Latour and many others Waste A Philosophy of Things investigates the complexities of waste in sculpture literature and architecture It traces a new philosophy of things from the ancient to the modern and will be of interest to those working in cultural and literary studies archaeology architecture and continental philosophy Calendar of Inquisitions Miscellaneous, Chancery, Preserved in the Public Record Office: 1422-1485 Great Britain. Public Record Office, 2003 The final volume in the series of Chancery documents now classified in the Public Record Office as Inquisitions Miscellaneous Housing the New Romans Katharine T. von Stackelberg, Elizabeth

Macaulay-Lewis, 2017 In the last twenty years reception studies have significantly enhanced our understanding of the ways in which Classics has shaped modern Western culture but very little attention has been directed toward the reception of classical architecture Housing the New Romans Architectural Reception and Classical Style in the Modern World addresses this gap by investigating ways in which appropriation and allusion facilitated the reception of Classical Greece and Rome through the requisition and redeployment of classicizing tropes to create neo Antique sites of dwelling in the 19th and early 20th centuries The volume across nine essays will cover both European and American iterations of place making including Sir John Soanes house in London the Hotel de Beauharnais in Paris and the Getty Villa in California By focusing on structures and places that are oriented towards private life houses hotels clubs tombs and gardens the volume directs the critical gaze towards diverse and complex sites of curatorial self fashioning The goal of the volume is to provide a multiplicity of interpretative frameworks e g object agency enchantment hyperreality memory infrastructure that may be applied to the study of architectural reception This critical approach makes Housing the New Romans the first work of its kind in the emerging field of architectural and landscape reception studies and in the hitherto textually dominated field of classical
