Rule Bible And Council The Library Of The Benedictine Abbey At Praglia:

The Rule, the Bible, and the Council Diana Gisolfi, Staale Sinding-Larsen, 1998 Diana Gisolfi and Staale Sinding Larsen begin with a reconstruction of the sixteenth century library room using physical on site evidence extant documents concerning the furnishings measurements of the paintings and early descriptions to re create with computer technology the room furnished and decorated in 1562 ca 1570 Once reconstructed the program in the twenty four ceiling and wall canvases by Zelotti is revealed as doctrinal Following a close reading of the images with reference to biblical texts the authors assemble Benedictine and Conciliar material through which to evaluate and interpret the program The Ethics of Ornament in Early Modern Naples J. Nicholas Napoli, 2017-07-05 The Carthusian monks at San Martino began a series of decorative campaigns in the 1580s that continued until 1757 transforming the church of their monastery the Certosa di San Martino into a jewel of marble revetment painting and sculpture The aesthetics of the church generate a jarring moral conflict few religious orders honored the ideals of poverty and simplicity so ardently yet decorated so sumptuously In this study Nick Napoli explores the terms of this conflict and of how it sought resolution amidst the social and economic realities and the political and religious culture of early modern Naples Napoli mines the documentary record of the decorative campaigns at San Martino revealing the rich testimony it provides relating to both the monks and the artists expectations of how practice and payment should transpire From these documents the author delivers insight into the ethical and economic foundations of artistic practice in early modern Naples The first English language study of a key monument in Naples and the first to situate the complex within the cultural history of the city The Ethics of Ornament in Early Modern Naples sheds new light on the Neapolitan baroque industries of art in the age before capitalism and the relation of art architecture and ornament Nuns and Reform Art in Early Modern Venice Benjamin Paul, 2017-07-05 Decorated by Giovanni Buonconsiglio Jacopo Tintoretto Palma il Giovane Sebastiano Ricci and Giambattista Tiepolo the church of the former Benedictine female monastery Santi Cosma e Damiano occupies an outstanding position in Venice The author of this study argues that from its foundation in 1481 to its dissolution in 1805 Santi Cosma e Damiano was a reform convent and that its nuns employed art and architecture as a means to actively express their specific religious concerns While on the one hand focusing on the basis of extensive archival research on the reconstruction of the history and construction of the convent this study s larger concern is with the religious reform movement its ideas concerning art and architecture and with the convent as a space for female self realization in early modern Venice The World of Renaissance Italy Joseph P. Observant Reforms and Cultural Production in Europe Pietro Delcorno, Bert Roest, 2023-08-09 The impetus of religious reform between ca 1380 1520 which expressed itself in a variety of Observant initiatives in many religious orders all over Europe and also brought forth the Devotio moderna movement in the late medieval Low Countries had considerable repercussions for the production of a wide range of religious texts and the embrace of other forms of cultural production scribal activities liturgical innovations art music religious architecture At the same time the very impetus of reform within late medieval religious orders and the wish to return to a more modest religious lifestyle in accordance with monastic and mendicant rules and ultimately with the commands of Christ in the Gospel made it difficult to wholeheartedly embrace the material consequences of learning literary and artistic prowess as the very pursuit of such pursuits ran against basic demands of evangelical poverty and humility This volume explores how this tension was negotiated in various Observant and Devotio moderna contexts and how communities connected with these movements instrumentalized various types of writing learning and other forms of cultural expression to further the cause of religious reform defend it against order internal and external criticism to shape recognizable reform identities for themselves and to transform religious life in society as a whole

Fashioning Identities in Renaissance Art Mary Rogers, 2019-06-04 Originally published in 2000 Fashioning Identities analyses some of the different ways in which identities were fashioned in and with art during the Renaissance taken as meaning the period c 1300 1600 The notion of such a search for new identities expressed in a variety of new themes styles and genres has been all pervasive in the historical and critical literature dealing with the period starting with Burckhardt and it has been given a new impetus by contemporary scholarship using a variety of methodological approaches The identities involved are those of patrons for whom artistic patronage was a means of consolidating power projecting ideologies acquiring social prestige or building a suitable public persona and artists who developed a distinctive manner to fashion their artistic identity or drew attention to aspects of their artistic personality either in self portraiture or the style and placing of their signature or by exploiting a variety of literary forms The Badia of Florence Anne Leader, 2012 The Santa Maria di Firenze the venerable Benedictine abbey located in the heart of Florence is the subject of this book Leader s richly illustrated interdisciplinary study examines the abbey s history during the Renaissance

From Duccio's Maestà to Raphael's Transfiguration Christa Gardner von Teuffel, 2005 Christa Gardner von Teuffel s essays shed light on the structure and placement of Italian altarpieces from the late medieval and Renaissance periods Archival research in Florence and Palermo reveals insights into patronage altarpiece programmes and the interaction between ecclesiastical and lay patrons artists and congregations Beholding the Sacred Mysteries Sharon E. J. Gerstel, 1999 Sharon Gerstel evokes a wide range of written and painted sources in order to analyze the decoration of the Byzantine sanctuary from the perspective of its contemporary viewer from monk to liturgical celebrant from bishop to lay worshipper In a new presentation of the sanctuary program the author reveals to the modern reader what was and even today is manifest only to the clergy In medieval Byzantium an artistic program developed behind the sanctuary screen for priests whose actions and words were reflected in the painted decorations Lay people were permitted to view certain parts of the painted program and the eucharistic celebration but the sanctuary was increasingly obscured from them by curtains and icons This book explores monuments from a single region Macedonia that range over a span of three hundred years 1028 1328 This period encompasses the beginnings of the new program its establishment and its expansion and in the absence of surviving monuments from the Byzantine capital Macedonia now divided among Greece Bulgaria and the former Yugoslavian Republic that bears its name contains an unbroken sequence of decorated churches This detailed examination of a related group of monuments demonstrates the varying popularity of certain subjects and details of decoration and how innovative approaches to Christian iconography were passed between painters and churches Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1997
