With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. The Modern Monologue

Michael Earley, Philippa Keil, 2013-09-27 The Modern Monologue in two volumes, one for men and one for women, is an exciting selection of speeches drawn from the landmark plays of the 20th century. The great playwrights of the British, American, and European theatre and the plays most constantly performed on stage throughout the world are represented in this unique collection. Monologues of all types, both serious and comic, realistic and absurdist, provide a dynamic challenge for all actors, the student, the amateur, and the professional. A fuller appreciation of each speech is enhanced by the editors' introduction and commentaries that set the plays and individual speeches in their dramatic and performance contexts.

The One-Act Play Companion Colin Dolley, Rex Walford, 2015-01-05 The one-act play stands apart as a distinct art form with some well-known writers providing specialist material among them Bernard Shaw, Tom Stoppard, Harold Pinter, Caryl Churchill, Alan Ayckbourn, Edward Albee, and Tennessee Williams. There are also lesser-known writers with plenty of material to offer. Yet sourcing one-act plays to perform is notoriously hard. This companion is the first book to survey the work of over 250 playwrights in an illuminating A-Z guide. Multiple styles, nationalities, and periods are covered, offering a treasure trove of compelling moments of theatre waiting to be discovered. Guidance on performing and staging one-act plays is also covered, as well as essential contact information and where to apply for performance rights. A chapter introducing the history of the one-act play rounds off the title as a definitive guide. British Playwrights, 1956-1995 William W. Demastes, 1996-10-23 The year 1956 marked a point when British drama and theater fell into the hands of a group of young playwrights who revolutionized the stage. During that time, playwrights such as Samuel Beckett and Harold Pinter made the British theater as rich, varied, and vital as any national theater in history. This reference chronicles the history of British theater from 1956 to 1995 by providing detailed information about the playwrights of that period. Included are entries for some three dozen British playwrights active between 1956 and 1995. Entries are arranged alphabetically to facilitate use. Each entry supplies biographical information, the production history for particular plays, a survey of the playwright's critical reception, an assessment of the dramatist's work, and primary and secondary bibliographies. A selected general bibliography at the end of the volume directs the reader to important sources of additional information about this period in theater history      Adult Themes Anne Etienne, Benjamin Halligan, Christopher Weedman, 2023-08-24 Between the late 1950s and mid 1970s British cinema experienced an explosion of X certificated films In parallel with an era marked by social political and sexual ferment and upheaval British filmmakers and censors pushed and guarded the permissible limits of violence horror revolt and sexuality on screen Adult Themes is the first volume entirely devoted to the exploration of British X certificate films across this transformative period since identified as the long 1960s How did the British Board of Film Censors harried on one side by the censorious and moralistic and beset on the other by demands for greater artistic freedom oversee and manage this provocative body of films How did the freedoms and restrictions of the X certificate hasten determine and reshape post war British cinema into an artistic exploitative and unapologetically adult medium Contributors to this collection consider these central questions as they take us to swinging parties on youthful crime sprees into local council meetings on police raids of cinemas and around Soho strip clubs and introduce us to mass murderers lesbian vampires apoplectic protestors eroticised middle aged women and rebellious working class men Adult Themes examines both the workings and negotiations of British film censorship the limits of artistic expression and a wider culture of X certificate cinema This is an important volume for students and scholars of British Film History and censorship Media Studies the 1960s and Cultural and Sexuality Studies while simultaneously an entertaining read for all connoisseurs of British cinema at its most vivid and scandalous      Tom Stoppard Hermione Lee, 2021 This is a Borzoi book published by Alfred A Knopf      Showman of the Screen A.
