Rumble In Hong Kong:

Cities and Cinema Barbara Mennel, 2008-03-19 Films about cities abound They provide fantasies for those who recognize their city and those for whom the city is a faraway dream or nightmare How does cinema rework city planners hopes and city dwellers fears of modern urbanism Can an analysis of city films answer some of the guestions posed in urban studies What kinds of vision for the future and images of the past do city films offer What are the changes that city films have undergone Cities and Cinema puts urban theory and cinema studies in dialogue The book s first section analyzes three important genres of city films that follow in historical sequence each associated with a particular city moving from the city film of the Weimar Republic to the film noir associated with Los Angeles and the image of Paris in the cinema of the French New Wave The second section discusses socio historical themes of urban studies beginning with the relationship of film industries and individual cities continuing with the portrayal of war torn and divided cities and ending with the cinematic expression of utopia and dystopia in urban science fiction The last section negotiates the question of identity and place in a global world moving from the portrayal of ghettos and barrios to the city as a setting for gay and lesbian desire to end with the representation of the global city in transnational cinematic practices. The book suggests that modernity links urbanism and cinema It accounts for the significant changes that city film has undergone through processes of globalization during which the city has developed from an icon in national cinema to a privileged site for transnational cinematic practices It is a key text for students and researchers of film studies urban studies and cultural studies China on Screen Christopher I. Berry, Mary Ann Farguhar, 2006-04-04 In China on Screen Chris Berry and Mary Farguhar leaders in the field of Chinese film studies explore more than one hundred years of Chinese cinema and nation Providing new perspectives on key movements themes and filmmakers Berry and Farguhar analyze the films of a variety of directors and actors including Chen Kaige Zhang Yimou Hou Hsiao Hsien Bruce Lee Jackie Chan Maggie Cheung Gong Li Wong Kar wai and Ang Lee They argue for the abandonment of national cinema as an analytic tool and propose cinema and the national as a more productive framework With this approach they show how movies from China Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora construct and contest different ideas of Chinese nation as empire republic or ethnicity and complicated by gender class style transnationalism and more Among the issues and themes covered are the tension between operatic and realist modes male and female star images transnational production and circulation of Chinese films the image of the good foreigner all related to different ways of imagining nation Comprehensive and provocative China on Screen is a crucial work of film analysis Warrior Women Lisa Funnell, 2014-05-19 Finalist for the 2014 ForeWord IndieFab Book of the Year Award in the Women's Studies Category Bronze Medalist 2015 Independent Publisher Book Awards in the Women Issues Category Winnerof the 2015 Emily Toth Award presented by the Popular Culture Association American Culture Association Warrior Women considers the significance of Chinese female action stars in martial arts films produced across a range of national and transnational contexts Lisa

Funnell examines the impact of the 1997 transfer of Hong Kong from British to Chinese rule on the representation of Chinese identities Hong Kong Chinese mainland Chinese Chinese American Chinese Canadian in action films produced domestically in Hong Kong and increasingly in cooperation with mainland China and Hollywood Hong Kong cinema has offered space for the development of transnational Chinese screen identities that challenge the racial stereotypes historically associated with the Asian female body in the West The ethnic national differentiation of transnational Chinese female stars such as Pei Pei Cheng Charlene Choi Gong Li Lucy Liu Shu Qi Michelle Yeoh and Zhang Ziyi is considered part of the ongoing negotiation of social cultural and geopolitical identities in the Chinese speaking world Martial Arts P. T. J. Rance, 2005 Capra's Eastern Horizons Elizabeth Rawitsch, 2014-10-16 Frank Capra has long had a reputation as being the quintessential American director the man who perfectly captured the identity and core values of the United States with a string of classic films in the 1930s and 40s including It Happened One Night Mr Smith Goes to Washington and It's a Wonderful Life However as Elizabeth Rawitsch argues Capra s construction of national identity did not occur within an exclusively national context She points out that many of his films are actually set in or include sequences set in China Latin America the Philippines and the South Seas Featuring in depth textual analysis supported by original archival research Frank Capra's Eastern Horizons explains that Capra's view of what constituted America changed over time extending its boundaries to embrace countries often far from the United States Complicating Edward Said's theory of Orientalism as a strict binary in which the West constructs the East as an inferior other it demonstrates that East and West often intermingle in films such as The Bitter Tea of General Yen and in Capra's orientation documentaries for World War II American servicemen Capra imagined a kind of global community albeit one with heavy undertones of British and American imperialism Investigating shifts in what Capra s America has meant over time both to Capra and to those who have watched and studied his films this innovative book offers a startlingly fresh perspective on one of the most iconic figures in American film history Iackie Chan Clyde Gentry, 1997-04-01 Jackie Chan Inside the Dragon is the first biography of this international star Drawn from one on one interviews with Chan himself and the actors actresses directors and other stuntmen who ve worked with him fans will finish this book knowing all the details behind Chan's life and films The Girl from Hong-Kong St. George Rathborne, 1898
