Rumor Of Angels Modern Society And The Rediscovery Of The Supernatural:

A Rumor of Angels Peter L. Berger, 2011-04-26 DIV Influential scholar Peter L Berger reveals five signs that point to the supernatural and its place in a modern secular society divDIV divDIV Acclaimed scholar and sociologist Peter L Berger examines religion in twentieth century Western society exploring the social nature of knowledge and its effect on religious belief Using five signs evident in ordinary life order play hope damnation and humor Berger calls for a rediscovery of the supernatural as a crucial rich dimension of humanity divDIV divDIV Conceived as a response to his influential book The Sacred Canopy Berger eschews technical jargon and speaks directly and systematically to those like himself who wish to explore religious questions div A Rumour of Angels: Peter L. Berger, 1971 A Rumour of Angels Peter Ludwig Berger, 1973 The Art of Moral Protest James M. Jasper, 2008-04-15 In The Art of Moral Protest James Jasper integrates diverse examples of protest from nineteenth century boycotts to recent movements into a distinctive new understanding of how social movements work Jasper highlights their creativity not only in forging new morals but in adopting courses of action and inventing organizational forms A provocative perspective on the cultural implications of political and social protest Library Journal Society Ian Robertson, 1989 This concise elegantly written paperback volume on the essential elements of sociology is perfect as the sole textbook for a brief introductory course or as a core text to be supplemented with other readings Understanding Friendship Gary Chartier, 2022-02-01 What is friendship Is it ethically important Does it exist outside ethics Is it a potential distraction from the love of God or from moral responsibility How might it nourish our spiritual lives How should we make sense of the moral responsibilities we often take ourselves to have to our friends Does friendship have anything to do with politics Understanding Friendship answers these questions by painting a picture of friendship as a vibrant expression of Christian love that can enrich individual lives even as in various ways it can also prove socially culturally politically and spiritually significant Through a wide ranging erudite yet accessible exploration of theological and philosophical traditions Understanding Friendship examines what friendship is while showing how its distinctive moral status can be supported by multiple approaches to Christian ethics Understanding Friendship ultimately reveals friendship s place in a fruitful understanding of Christian spirituality T&T Clark Handbook of Theology and the Arts Stephen M. Garrett, Imogen Adkins, 2025-04-24 This volume presents the theology arts conversation from a distinctly Christian perspective as a witness of the Gospel of Christ to the world A widespread interest in the historical socio cultural and political embeddedness of theology and the arts permeates it This theme of embeddedness tracks through several overarching and interlocking concerns the relationship between form and content in both art and theology the intensification of the metaphysical and the theological contra materialist and positivist reductionisms the expansion of the epistemological possibilities of the theology art conversation and a robust understanding of the world as the theatre of God s glory Several chapters have been co written by theologians and artists as part of demonstrating the kind of conversation that this book commends A thorough going commitment to Scripture is also woven into the many different habits of thought represented in this volume Part I surveys different approaches to the theology arts conversation Part II focuses on how particular art forms bring theological issues to the surface and how theological and denominational traditions shape the making and receiving of the arts Part III delves into key topics in the current theology arts scene and asks how artistic and theological performance can both speak to theological and artistic knowing and help to celebrate and interrogate embodied lived reality

The Scandalous Menu Daniel Medina, 2018-11-21 The Eucharist is the living parable of the Christian life and story It embodies every aspiration teaching hope sacrifice and selfless act of mercy and grace Christ left it as a memorial in word presence and deed It is love before us as Christ's very own real presence empowers and wills us to love others as he loved us first The Eucharist is the multisensory expression of Christ consciousness embodied in matter and in time Anyone who embraces the real presence of Christ in Spirit and in truth will experience a life transformed The experience of gathered worship prayer study spirituality and acts of justice and mercy will never again be the same Written for the Church universal The Scandalous Menu is a manifesto for the local church to embrace the supernatural power of the Eucharist and to reclaim the sacrament as the source of meaning and definition for life together as a people of God in Christ It is the call to reaffirm marriage vows with the bridegroom and for aspiring to be a Eucharistic community in the context and place God has called the local church to be serve and do This book is a call to a life of deep intimacy a higher experience of God and an invitation to unending transformation

Knowledge and the Sacred Seyyed Hossein Nasr, 1989-07-03

Scientific Models for Religious Knowledge Andrew Ralls Woodward, 2018-08-14 Most comparisons of science and religion are really comparisons of science and Christianity or science and Islam and so forth In Scientific Models for Religious Knowledge the author aims to get outside typical polarized debates between traditional a priori theism and radical scientific naturalism Instead a new science and religion compatibility system between a scientific study of religion and a religious epistemology is our new elusive problem Moreover we shall look at a comparison and contrast of modern science with the simple deference of the human mind to the actions of culturally postulated superhuman agents This book pays critical attention to the contributions of scholars in the philosophy of religion the philosophy of science and the scientific study of religion Scientific Models for Religious Knowledge is useful for readers looking to expand their learning in the philosophies of science and religion as these subjects are taught and analyzed in modern research universities

The Slain God Timothy Larsen, 2014-08-29 Throughout its entire history the discipline of anthropology has been perceived as undermining or even discrediting Christian faith Many of its most prominent theorists have been agnostics who assumed that ethnographic findings and theories had exposed religious beliefs to be untenable E B Tylor the founder of the discipline in Britain lost his faith through studying anthropology James Frazer saw the material that he presented in his highly influential work The Golden Bough as demonstrating that Christian thought was based on the erroneous thought patterns of savages On the other hand some of the most eminent

anthropologists have been Christians including E E Evans Pritchard Mary Douglas Victor Turner and Edith Turner Moreover they openly presented articulate reasons for how their religious convictions cohered with their professional work Despite being a major site of friction between faith and modern thought the relationship between anthropology and Christianity has never before been the subject of a book length study In this groundbreaking work Timothy Larsen examines the point where doubt and faith collide with anthropological theory and evidence

Modern Conspiracy Emma A. Jane,Chris Fleming,2014-08-28 While conspiracy theory is often characterized in terms of the collapse of objectivity and Enlightenment reason Modern Conspiracy traces the important role of conspiracy in the formation of the modern world the scientific revolution social contract theory political sovereignty religious paranoia and mass communication media Rather than seeing the imminent death of Enlightenment reason and a regression to a new Dark Age in conspiratorial thinking Modern Conspiracy suggests that many characteristic features of conspiracies tap very deeply into the history of the Enlightenment its vociferous critique of established authorities and a conception of political sovereignty fuelled by fear of counter plots for example Perhaps ultimately conspiracy theory affords us a renewed opportunity to reflect on our very relationship to the truth itself

Secularism, Race, and the Politics of Islamophobia Sharmin Sadequee, 2025-07-02 Dominant scholarship identifies Islamophobia as a form of racism where race and religion have become conflated in social structures These important analyses form a complex ideological social political and historical construction However the authors in this volume argue that current scholarship does not account for the relationship between secularism and race in social structures in theorizing Islamophobia Advocating for a decolonial approach to better theorize the phenomenon Secularism Race and the Politics of Islamophobia intervenes in this area of scholarship to call attention to the ways secularism is embedded in and drives the disciplinary institutions of the State such as law political groups government entities and bureaucracies to authorize racism and the racialization of Muslims and Islam Highlighting the extent and nature of contemporary scholarly debates as well as public efforts to counter Islamophobia the contributors to this collection address and deepen awareness of its present day formations in secular neoliberal societies Scholars and students from anthropology sociology law political science and beyond will benefit from this interdisciplinary study Contributors Khaled Al Qazzaz Jinan Bastaki Dustin J Byrd Zeinab Diab Alain Gabon Elizabeth Shakman Hurd Fatimah Jackson Best Roshan Arah Jahangeer Areesha Khan Sharmin Sadequee Saul J Takahashi Nakita Valerio Foreword by Jasmin Zine

The Evolution of Religion, Religiosity and Theology Jay R. Feierman, Lluís Oviedo, 2019-09-11 This book takes a multi dimensional and multi disciplinary approach to religion religiosity and theology from their earliest beginnings to the present day It uniquely brings together the natural sciences and theology to explore how religious practice emerged and developed through the four sections into which the book is organized Evolutionary biology Philosophical linguistics psychology and neuroscience Theology and Anthropology The volume features an international panel of contributors who develop an innovative picture of religion as a culturally created social institution religiosity as a more personal and subjective anthropological element of people expressed through religion and theology as the study of god To survive in changing times living systems a good characterization of religion religiosity and theology all must adaptively evolve This is a vital study of a rapidly burgeoning field As such it will be of great interest to scholars in religious studies and theology as well as in the psychological sociological and anthropological study of religion

Basic Christian Doctrine John H. Leith, 1993-01-01 John Leith provides a brief but comprehensive statement of Christian faith for contemporary Christians He considers the theologians of the ancient church and affirm the faith of the ancient creeds

The Fabric of Theology Richard Lints, 1993 After showing that today's evangelicals have not fared well in the crucible of modern pluralism Lints argues that in order to regain spiritual wholeness evangelicals must relearn how to think and live theologically He provides a provocative new outline for the construction of a truly transformative evangelical theology in the modern age The Christian at Play

Robert K. Johnston, 1997-09-09 Play as an event of the inventive human spirit invites our most able Christian reflection The person at play is expressing his or her God given nature Unable to understand our play as God given Christians are often inauthentic players Johnston tries to help us to see that Christians are created to work and to play The Desecularization of the World Peter L. Berger, 1999-07-16 Theorists of secularization have for two centuries been saying that religion must inevitably decline in the modern world But today much of the world is as religious as ever This volume challenges the belief that the modern world is increasingly secular showing instead that modernization more often strengthens religion Seven leading cultural observers examine several regions and several religions and explain the resurgence of religion in world politics Peter L Berger opens with a global overview The other six writers deal with particular aspects of the religious scene George Weigel with Roman Catholicism David Martin with the evangelical Protestant upsurge not only in the Western world but also in Latin America Africa the Pacific rim China and Eastern Europe Jonathan Sacks with Jews and politics in the modern world Abdullahi A An Na im with political Islam in national politics and international relations Grace Davie with Europe as perhaps the exception to the desecularization thesis and Tu Weiming with religion in the People s Republic of China
