Rumor Of Angels:

A Rumor of Angels Dale Bailey, 2013-09-11 A Rumor of Angels by Dale Bailey is a fantasy novelette that takes place during the period of the dust bowl in the American Midwest A teenage boy walks away from his father's wasted farm to follow the other travelers heading west where there is a rumor of angels The stark mimetic power of A Rumor of Angels with its dusty Steinbeckian heat and poverty climaxes in a totally organic but still unexpected supernatural fashion Locus At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied Madness, Heresy, and the Rumor of Angels Seth Farber, 1993 This is a collection of seven true stories of individuals insulted and injured by the mental health system individuals who then fought back broke free and rebuilt their lives Madness Heresy and the Rumor of Angels is a work in the tradition of Thomas Szasz R D Laing and Erving Goffman a challenge to the delusional belief system known as psychiatry and a protest against its appalling crimes A Rumor of Angels Peter L. Berger, 1970-01-06 Written by one of the most revered sociologists of the of the 20th century A Rumor of Angels gives readers a unique insight into the complicated relationship between religion and society It is undeniable that religion has had a profound effect on civilization Readers will learn just how religion and society affect one another and how that relationship has changed in modern times with the secularization of mainstream society Questioning modern morality Peter Berger offers one of the most thought provoking books on religion in the 20th century Praise for Peter Berger A book of great practical wisdom by authors who have profound insight into the intellectual dynamics governing contemporary life Dallas Willard author of Knowing Christ Today Secularism and the Pursuit of Transcendence, Volume I Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent's pursuit of us Perfecting Grace Mark H. Mann, 2006-11-15 Mark Mann seeks to renew discussion of the doctrine of holiness in Christian theology by using the human sciences as a tool for theological reconstruction He identifies the anthropological presuppositions of the holiness tradition and explores the ways that those presuppositions have led to particular assertions regarding the nature of Christian holiness as that doctrine is affirmed by the holiness tradition He asks to what extent holiness is possible in this life How is holiness obtained and to what extent can people gain knowledge of having achieved holiness Mann uses the resources of the neurosciences the sociology of knowledge and psychology to help answer these questions and to provide constructive theological analysis of these questions Death, Grief, and Christian Hope Nancy Marrocco, 2000-09-16 The older teens in your parish want a youth ministry program that exposes them to relevant real world topics in an active engaging way Horizons is an innovative comprehensive approach to religious education Its foundation is teacher led creative learning strategies that give students ample opportunities for discussion reflection and fun Designed for grades 9 12 Horizons utilizes a module system so that you can combine courses and topics to meet the specific needs of your parish Seven core courses set the stage for discussing central and foundational themes Then choose from a wide selection of age appropriate minicourses to round out your curriculum and craft summer courses retreats and youth group activities The Youth Ministry Strategies component features more than 65 creative youth activities to complement the Horizons curriculum And on top of all that Horizons includes outstanding training resources You'll be able to create the most engaging and relevant youth ministry program for senior high that is available anywhere

God Timothy A. Robinson, 2002-01-01 Including over one hundred fifty pages of new material a new introduction enhanced headnotes and an updated list of further readings this significantly expanded anthology provides a rich selection of traditional and modern works that reflect the many ways in which philosophers have attempted to address the question of the existence of God Words in Action Richard Briggs, 2004-07-01 How is the biblical text understood and how does it function in the life of the reader today Richard Briggs first provides an illuminating introduction to the nature and claims of speech act theory This seeks to extend our understanding of both spoken and written means of communication by seeing them not as merely representational or reality depicting but as acting or causing acts to be performed through the words themselves Briggs goes on to discuss to what extent the application of speech act theory might be helpful in the interpretation of biblical texts In one of the first book length explorations of this topic he examines in detail several biblical speech acts of particular theological significance including the confession of sin forgiveness and teaching Through exploring the specific ways in which the reader is drawn into the performative action of the biblical text and how speech act theory forces the reader to look beyond language into the world which gives the language its ability to function speech act theory is shown to offer valuable insights within today's complex hermeneutical debate A very significant volume Alan Torrance Professor of Divinity University of Andrews An excellent piece of work which is thoroughly acquainted with speech act theory and takes the debate forward in a variety of creative exegetical and theological ways Dr Craig Bartholomew University of Gloucestershire

Cultural Apologetics Paul M. Gould, 2019-03-12 Renewing the Christian voice conscience and imagination so that we can become compelling witnesses of the Gospel in today's culture Christianity has an image problem While the culture we inhabit presents us with an increasingly anti Christian and disenchanted position the church in the West has not helped its case by becoming anti intellectual fragmented and out of touch with the relevancy of Jesus to all aspects of contemporary life The muting of the Christian voice its imagination and its collective conscience have diminished the prospect of having a genuine missionary encounter with others today Cultural apologetics attempts to demonstrate not only the truth of the Gospel but also its desirability by reestablishing Christianity as the answer that satisfies our three universal human longings truth goodness and beauty In Cultural Apologetics philosopher and professor Paul Gould sets forth a fresh and uplifting model for cultural engagement rooted in the biblical account of Paul s speech in Athens which details practical steps for establishing Christianity as both true and beautiful reasonable and satisfying You ll be introduced to The idea of cultural apologetics as distinct from traditional apologetics The path from disenchantment with how we understand reality to re enchantment with the reality of the spiritual nature of things The practical tools of good cultural engagement conscience reason and imagination Equip yourself to see and help others see the world as it is through the lens of the Spirit deeply beautiful mysterious and sacred With creative insights Cultural Apologetics prepares readers to share a vision of the Christian faith that is both plausible and desirable offering clarity for those who have become disoriented in the haze of modern Western culture

Truth before Logic Michael B. Mitchell, 2024-09-13 Truth before Logic explores the provocative implications of the claim that you can only find truth with logic if you have already found truth without it Chesterton counters the sterile truncated worldview of scientism with an appeal to a deep awareness in the heart and mind without which there would be neither science nor religion He stirs a buried awareness of the lucid but inarticulate truth that romance is the deepest thing in life and counters a myopic materialism by making us more aware of the reality that racks the soul with something of which God keeps the secret but which is stronger than sorrow or joy Few voices will be more helpful in enabling the contemporary reader to understand science within the full scope of human experience Chesterton s insights are an antidote to the soul atrophy that results from scientism and a ballast of sanity in a confidently confused world the Truth Will Make You Free Robert F. Leavitt, 2019-03-15 2020 Association of Catholic Publishers first place award in theology The available literature on the new evangelization is wide ranging and focused on issues of ecclesial renewal In The Truth Will Make You Free Fr Robert Leavitt adopts a different approach to the subject From Paul VI until Pope Francis the nature and challenges of modern secularism have become a recurring factor in the agenda of the new evangelization yet often without historical perspective and philosophical balance Few popular works bother to examine in such depth and scope as this book does what the history nature and implications of the secular age are for revitalizing ministry in an age of optional belief Written for the interested layperson seminarian theology student and pastor The Truth Will Make You Free is an indispensable catechism for rethinking our understanding of the secular world in proclaiming the Gospel of Christ

Scientific Models for Religious Knowledge Andrew Ralls Woodward,2018-08-14 Most comparisons of science and religion are really comparisons of science and Christianity or science and Islam and so forth In Scientific Models for Religious Knowledge the author aims to get outside typical polarized debates between traditional a priori theism and radical scientistic naturalism Instead a new science and religion compatibility system between a scientific study of religion and a religious epistemology is our new elusive problem Moreover we shall look at a comparison and contrast of modern science with the simple deference of the human mind to the actions of culturally postulated superhuman agents This book pays critical attention to the contributions of scholars in the philosophy of religion the philosophy of science and the scientific study of religion Scientific Models for Religious Knowledge is useful for readers looking to expand their learning in the philosophies of science and religion as these subjects are taught and analyzed in modern research universities

The Living Moment Jeffrey Hart,2012-07-31 In the spirit of Lionel Trilling Edmund Wilson and Susan Sontag the renowned literary critic Jeffrey Hart writes The Living Moment a close reading of literature as it intersects with the political Hart s book is an even handed guide for anyone toddling into the mists of the modernist moment effortlessly moving between such modernist monuments as Eliot s The Waste Land Hemingway s A Farewell to Arms Mann s Doctor Faustus and Fitzgerald s The Great Gatsby Hart s most stunning achievement is his brilliant inclusion of Marilynne Robinson's Gilead as a modernist text for the way the novel teaches us to see more to hear more to feel more Hart's dazzling study is an examination of important works of literature as they explore the experience of living in a broken world with thought and sometimes with examples of resolve that possess permanent validity The Living Moment is for anyone who is wearied by so much of today's trendy narrow and ideologically driven criticism

Written with verve, insight, and an appreciation for the consequential lives that have touched his own, Not Forgotten fills out the autobiographical portrait that George Weigel began painting in Lessons in Hope: My Unexpected Life with Saint John Paul II while offering a backstage view of some of the men and women who have shaped the turbulent history of our times. The 60 intriguing lives that he writes about are a wide diversity of unique characters and personalities, including Albert Einstein, William F. Buckley, Flannery O'Connor, Franz J. Gerstl, John Paul II, Jackie Robinson, Charles Krauthammer, Sophie Scholl, Henry Hyde, James Schall, S. J. Dietrich, Von Hildebrand, Charles Colson, Fr. Richard J. Neuhaus, and many more.
