Cooper,2017-10-09 Now surpassed in fame as a writer by his daughter's best friend Daphne du Maurier Arthur Quiller Couch was the pre eminent Cornish writer of Victorian and Edwardian times and founder of the school of English Literature at Cambridge University He is of particular interest since his fiction was very often based on factual events which have now passed from memory This volume the first in a series contains three of his best known stories which recount the Arrest and detention of Captain Bligh on the Helford River Ghostly consequences of the tragic wreck of the HMS Primrose in 1805 and Tale of the last military siege in England Oscar Wilde and Modern Culture Joseph Bristow,2009-01-12 Oscar Wilde and Modern Culture The Making of a Legend explores the meteoric rise sudden fall and legendary resurgence of an immensely influential writer's reputation from his hectic 1881 American lecture tour to recent Hollywood adaptations of his dramas Always renowned if not notorious for his fashionable persona Wilde courted celebrity at an early age Later he came to prominence as one of the most talented essayists and fiction writers of his time In the years leading up to his two year imprisonment Wilde stood among the foremost dramatists in London But after he was sent down for committing acts of gross indecency it seemed likely that social embarrassment would inflict irreparable damage to his legacy As this volume shows Wilde died in comparative obscurity Little could he have realized that in five years his name would come back into popular circulation thanks to the success of Richard Strauss's opera Salome and Robert Ross's edition of De Profundi With each succeeding decade the twentieth century continued to honor Wilde's name by keeping his plays in repertory producing dramas about his life adapting his works for film and devising countless biographical and critical studies of his writings This volume reveals why more than a hundred years after his demise Wilde's value in the academic world the auction house and the entertainment industry stands higher than that of any modern writer The Telegraph: Pub Quiz Volume 1 Telegraph Media Group Ltd,2016-09-01 This brand new collection of 4000 general knowledge questions is set by Gavin Fuller Mastermind's youngest ever champion and compiled from his weekly quiz in the popular Weekend section of the Telegraph With questions on anything and everything from the Classics to The Magic Roundabout this is perfect for all who love a challenge and can be used to set your own quizzes with family and friends For die hard pub quiz fans this book also includes Gavin's Snorter questions the most fiendishly difficult questions from his quiz each week With such a wide variety of questions it's fun for everyone and you
