Run The Wild Steer Run

HOWARD R. GARIS

Run The Wild Steer Run:

Run Wild, Run Free Nancy Morse, Guilt over his wife's death while he was competing on the rodeo circuit seven years ago forced Hank Reardon to retreat to his ranch in the shadow of the Tetons. These days the former rodeo champion breeds horses and breaks wild mustangs stubbornly clinging to his vow never to compete again. Assigned to photograph the annual mustang roundup it's easy for photojournalist Kit Sloan to see that the hard working hard roping cowboy who hides behind his guilt still has the stuff of a rodeo champion. With Kit spurring him on Hank returns to the circuit. But their love is threatened by Hank's vendetta against a wild stallion and his struggle to put the past behind him. One Man's West

,2007-10-01 The American West of the 1930s and 1940s was still a place of prospectors, cowboys, ranchers and mountaineers, one that demanded backbreaking, lonely and dangerous work. Still, midcentury pioneers such as David Lavender remembered not the cold and the cruel fatigue but rather the multitude of tiny things which in their sum make up the elemental poetry of rock and ice and snow. And as the nation exhausted its gold and silver veins as law reached the boomtowns on the frontier and as the era of the great cattle ranches and drives came to an end, Lavender felt compelled to document his experiences in rugged southwest Colorado to preserve this rapidly disappearing way of life. One Man's West is Lavender's ode to his days on the Continental Divide and the story of his experiences making a living in the not so wild but not yet tamed West. Like stories told around a campfire, One Man's West is captivating yet conversational, incredible yet realistic, and introduces some of the most charming characters in western literature. This new Bison Books edition features an introduction and afterword by the author's son that discuss other phases and facets of his father's remarkable life as well as a tribute to the author by his grandson. It also includes nine new photographs from the Lavender family archives. From the Prairie Schooner to a City Flat

Charles Brougher Jernigan, 1926 Presents Jernigan's experiences and observations as pastor, evangelist, organizer of Nazarene Churches or Holiness Churches in twenty-five states. Jernigan served as district superintendent of the Nazarene Kansas Oklahoma District 1908-1912 then as superintendent of the Western Oklahoma District 1922-1923. Animal

Resistance in the Global Capitalist Era Sarat Colling, 2020-12-01 The concept of animal resistance is now reaching a wide audience across the social media landscape. Animal Resistance in the Global Capitalist Era offers an overview of how animals resist human orderings in the context of capitalism, domestication and colonization. Exploring this understudied phenomenon, this book is attentive to both the standpoints of animal resisters and the ways they are represented in human society. Together these lenses provide insight into how animals' resistance disrupts the dominant paradigm of human exceptionalism and the distancing strategies of enterprises that exploit animals for profit. Animals have been relegated to the margins by human spatial and ideological orderings but they are also the subjects of their own struggle located at the center of their liberation movement. Well researched and accessible with over fifty images that aid in understanding both the experiences of and responses to animals who resist, Animal Resistance in the Global Capitalist Era is an important contribution to scholarship on animals and society The text will appeal to a broad audience interested in the relationships between humans and the other animals with whom we share this planet The Collected Works B. M. Bower, 2022-11-13 In The Collected Works B M Bower presents a compilation of stories that encapsulate the essence of the early 20th century Western genre Renowned for her vivid depictions of frontier life Bower employs a narrative style that seamlessly intertwines humor and pathos reflecting a nuanced understanding of her characters motivations and the landscape they inhabit Her prose is characterized by sharp dialogues and evocative descriptions which transport readers to the rugged American West a setting that serves as both backdrop and character in her multifaceted storytelling This collection showcases her ability to portray female perspectives in a typically male dominated genre allowing for a fresh examination of themes such as resilience independence and community dynamics B M Bower born in 1871 in Virginia was a trailblazer in her own right often drawing from her own experiences as a rancher in Montana Her background infused with genuine affection for the frontier lifestyle significantly shaped her narratives lending authenticity and depth to her characters Bower s works not only reflect the socio political dynamics of her era but also contribute significantly to the canon of American literature emphasizing the often overlooked roles women played in shaping the West This collected volume is a must read for anyone interested in the evolution of Western literature or the role of women in American history Bower s distinctive voice and rich storytelling afford readers a profound insight into a transformative period Her stories resonate with both delight and poignancy making The Collected Works an essential addition to the library of any literary enthusiast The Ramblin' Kid Earl Wayland Bowman, 1920 Equine Welfare C. Wayne McIlwraith, Bernard E. Rollin, 2011-02-02 A rational exploration of the ethical and welfare issues in all areas of equine use This book addresses controversial and emotive issues surrounding these iconic creatures providing a reliable source of information to support informed debate It will enable all those with an interest in horses and the uses they are put to gain an awareness of the problems and abuses that occur The book draws on the expertise of a range of acknowledged leaders in equine health and welfare The first part of the book explores general issues of the horse s needs and nature The second part contains chapters each covering a specific human use of horses and the abuses that arise as a result This book is part of the UFAW Wiley Blackwell Animal Welfare Book Series This major series of books produced in collaboration between UFAW The Universities Federation for Animal Welfare and Wiley Blackwell provides an authoritative source of information on worldwide developments current thinking and best practice in the field of animal welfare science and technology For details of all of the titles in the series see www.wiley.com/go/ufaw The Ramblin' Kid Earl Wayland Bowman, 2025-08-31 Reproduction of the original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Cowboy Life of James L.
