Run Away and the Forgotten Prisoners Charles Cofield, 2000 Legal status laws etc Texas History      Educating for Action Jason Del Gandio, Anthony J. Nocella, 2014-09-01 An inspiring instructional handbook for transforming idealism into social change The pursuit of freedom and justice is a timeless one but new activists may not know where to begin while more experienced ones often become jaded or fatigued The task of constructing a new society free from oppression and inequality can be overwhelming Tools for facilitating motivation engagement and communication can mean the difference between failure and success for activists and social movements Educating for Action collects the voices of activists whose combined experience in confronting injustice has generated a wealth of key insights for creating social change This practical guide explores such topics as Community activism and direct democracy Conflict negotiation communication and rhetoric Law the educational system and lifestyle activism Social media skills conference planning and online organizing Written in an inspirational tone Educating for Action consciously straddles the line between street activism and classroom instruction Bridging the gap between these two worlds makes for an engaging and instructive manual for social justice helping students teachers and larger activist communities turn their idealism into action Jason Del Gandio is a scholar activist and assistant professor of rhetoric and public advocacy at Temple University He is the author of Rhetoric for Radicals A Handbook for 21st Century Activists Anthony J. Nocella II is a scholar activist and senior fellow of the Dispute Resolution Institute at the Hamline Law School He is a long time anti racism youth justice prison abolition hip hop animal disability and Earth liberation activist and has published over fifty scholarly articles and book chapters and sixteen books      Oriental Prisons Arthur Griffiths, 2019-12-06 In Oriental Prisons Arthur Griffiths offers a compelling exploration of the penal systems across various Asian cultures during the late 19th century Employing a meticulous documentary style he intertwines vivid descriptions with personal narratives presenting a rich tapestry of life inside some of the world's most notorious prisons This work not only sheds light on the often overlooked conditions faced by inmates but also critiques the broader socio political impacts of colonialism power dynamics and cultural expectations of justice giving readers a vivid lens through which to understand the period's complexities Arthur Griffiths an English author and a former police officer draws from his extensive experiences in law enforcement and travel allowing him to present an insider's perspective on incarceration practices His unique combination of solid academic grounding and practical knowledge positions him as a reliable voice in examining the multifaceted interactions between the East and West and how these interactions influenced perceptions of criminality and punishment Griffiths deep empathy for the human condition resonates through his writing providing poignant insights into both the individual and collective experiences of oppression Oriental Prisons is an essential read for anyone interested in criminal justice systems colonial history or the socio cultural dynamics of incarceration With Griffiths expert narrative readers will gain not only a historical understanding but also a profound reflection on humanity's capacity for both brutality

and compassion making it a timeless exploration worthy of reflection in today's context The History and Romance of Crime Arthur Griffiths, 2017-07-05 Oriental Prisons Prisons and crime in India the Andaman Islands Burmah China Japan Egypt and Turkey It is as true of crime in the Orient as of other habits customs and beliefs of the East that what has descended from generation to generation and become not only a tradition but an established fact is accepted as such by the people who display only a passive indifference to deeds of cruelty and violence Each country has its own peculiar classes of hereditary criminals and the influence of tradition and long established custom has made the eradication of such crimes a difficult matter Religion in the East has had a most notable influence on crime In India the Thugs or professional stranglers were most devout and their criminal acts were preceded by religious rites and ceremonies In China the peculiar forms of animism pervading the religion of the people has greatly influenced criminal practices Murder veiled in obscurity is frequently attributed to some one of the legion of evil spirits who are supposed to be omnipresent and to satisfy and appease these demons innocent persons are made to suffer So great too is the power of the spirit after death to cause good or ill that many stories are related of victims of vi injustice who have hanged themselves on their persecutors door posts thus converting their spirits into wrathful ghosts to avenge them The firm belief in ghosts and their power of vengeance and reward is a great restraint in the practice of infanticide as the souls of murdered infants may seek vengeance and bring about serious calamity Oriental prison history is one long record of savage punishments culminating in the death penalty aggravated by abominable tortures The people are of two classes the oppressed and the oppressors and the last named have invented many devices for legal persecution In early China and Japan relentless and ferocious methods were in force

China John Henry Gray, 1878 Prison of Night E.C. Tubb, 2011-09-29 ZAKYM World of the night rulers and the day people A world teetering on the edge of nightmare The Cyclan orders were clear Find Dumarest Find him before war erupts on ZAKYM But Zakym could hold the key to Dumarest's search for his lost home planet and for that he would risk everything First published 1977 The History and Romance of Crime Arthur Griffiths, 2017-03-01 It is as true of crime in the Orient as of other habits customs and beliefs of the East that what has descended from generation to generation and become not only a tradition but an established fact is accepted as such by the people who display only a passive indifference to deeds of cruelty and violence Each country has its own peculiar classes of hereditary criminals and the influence of tradition and long established custom has made the eradication of such crimes a difficult matter Religion in the East has had a most notable influence on crime In India the Thugs or professional stranglers were most devout and their criminal acts were preceded by religious rites and ceremonies In China the peculiar forms of animism pervading the religion of the people has greatly influenced criminal practices Murder veiled in obscurity is frequently attributed to some one of the legion of evil spirits who are supposed to be omnipresent and to satisfy and appease these demons innocent persons are made to suffer So great too is the power of the spirit after death to cause good or ill that many stories are related of victims of vi injustice who have hanged themselves on their persecutors door posts thus converting their spirits into wrathful ghosts to avenge them The firm belief in ghosts and their power of vengeance and reward is a great restraint in the practice of infanticide as the souls of murdered infants may seek vengeance and bring about serious calamity

Torture and Democracy Darius Rejali, 2009-06-08 This is the most comprehensive and most comprehensively chilling study of modern torture yet written Darius Rejali one of the world's leading experts on torture takes the reader from the late nineteenth century to the aftermath of Abu Ghraib from slavery and the electric chair to electro-torture in American inner cities and from French and British colonial prison cells and the Spanish American War to the fields of Vietnam the wars of the Middle East and the new democracies of Latin America and Europe As Rejali traces the development and application of one torture technique after another in these settings he reaches startling conclusions As the twentieth century progressed he argues democracies not only tortured but set the international pace for torture Dictatorships may have tortured more and more indiscriminately but the United States Britain and France pioneered and exported techniques that have become the lingua franca of modern torture methods that leave no marks Under the watchful eyes of reporters and human rights activists low level authorities in the world's oldest democracies were the first to learn that to scar a victim was to advertise iniquity and invite scandal Long before the CIA even existed police and soldiers turned instead to clean techniques such as torture by electricity ice water noise drugs and stress positions As democracy and human rights spread after World War II so too did these methods Rejali makes this troubling case in fluid arresting prose and on the basis of unprecedented research conducted in multiple languages and on several continents begun years before most of us had ever heard of Osama bin Laden or Abu Ghraib The author of a major study of Iranian torture Rejali also tackles the controversial question of whether torture really works answering the new apologists for torture point by point A brave and disturbing book this is the benchmark against which all future studies of modern torture will be measured

Film and Counterculture in the 2011 Egyptian Uprising Amir Taha,2021-04-15 This book examines how film articulates countercultural flows in the context of the Egyptian Revolution The book interrogates the gap between radical politics and radical aesthetics by analyzing counterculture as a form drawing upon Egyptian films produced between 2010 and 2016 The work offers a definition of counterculture which liberates the term from its Western frame and establishes a theoretical concept of counterculture which is more globally redolent The book opens a door for further research of the Arab Uprising arguing for a new and topical model of rebellion and struggle and sheds light on the interaction between cinema and the street as well as between cultural narratives and politics in the context of the 2011 Egyptian uprising What is counterculture in the twenty first century What role does cinema play in this new notion of counterculture
