Running Free Independent Practice:

Free Clinics Virginia M. Brennan, 2013-05-15 Free clinics and student run clinics are an essential part of America's health care safety net. In community after community pro bono and student run health clinics have sprung up over the past 30 years providing critically needed care to medically underserved populations. Free Clinics is a mosaic formed by accounts of such clinics around the United States. These wide ranging narratives from urban to rural from primary care to behavioral health care provide examples that will assist other communities seeking to find the model that best fits their needs. The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act has improved access to health care for many Americans but millions remain and will remain uninsured or underinsured. Free clinics provide non emergency care to those in need. Nationwide professionals can be found offering volunteer services at these clinics. Contributors to this volume typically people with personal familiarity as clinicians or area residents with the clinics they write about cover a variety of topics including a review of the literature data driven accounts of clinic usage and ethical guidelines for student run clinics. They describe the motivations of clinic staff the day to day work of a family nurse practitioner working in clinics and teaching at a university the challenges and rewards of providing health care for homeless people and more. Student run clinics are the topic of the second section in addition to providing care to a small subset of those in need student run clinics are an important venue for training future clinicians and helping the seeds of altruism with which many enter their professions to germinate. Free Clinics will be useful to policymakers students and faculty in public health and health policy programs and clinicians and students who are embarking on launching new clinics.

Latino Families in Therapy, Second Edition Celia Jaes Falicov, 2015-04-10 Since its initial publication this acclaimed work has provided a comprehensive conceptual framework and hands on strategies for culturally competent clinical practice with Latino families and individuals. Practitioners and students gain an understanding of the family dynamics migration experiences ecological stressors and cultural resources that are frequently shared by Latino families as well as variations among them. Through in depth case illustrations the author shows how to apply a multicultural lens to assessment and intervention that draws on each client's strengths. Creative ideas are presented for addressing frequently encountered clinical issues and challenges at all stages of the family life cycle. New to This Edition Reflects the ongoing development of the author's multidimensional model including additional assessment treatment planning tools. Incorporates the latest clinical research and over a decade of social and demographic changes. Chapter on working with geographically separated families including innovative uses of technology. Chapters on health disparities and on adolescents. Expanded discussion of same sex marriage intermarriage divorce and stepparenting. Subject Areas Keywords acculturation adolescents assessments Chicano children clinical practice couples cultural diversity discrimination ethnicity families family therapy Hispanic immigrants immigration Latino mental health migration parenting prejudice psychotherapy racism religion spirituality treatments. Audience Therapists and counselors working with families instructors and students in family therapy.

charismatic authority and brainwashing Instead Thomas adopts auditing as a method of providing an in depth case study of a new religion in transition and transformation in the 21st century This opens the study of contemporary and new religions to a series of new questions around hybrid religions sacred and secular and acts as a framework for the study of similar movements formed in recent decades OECD Reviews of Health Care Quality: Korea 2012 Raising Standards
