of all levels who seek to conquer new terrain while breaking personal records      Running For My Life Dragoş Rouă,2020-10-13 The spooky thing about depression is that it sneaks in There aren't really trumpets and loud voices announcing Hail hail this is depression entering the room all rise Nope It's slow silent creepy It doesn't even look like depression It starts with small isolation thoughts like Maybe I shouldn't get out today I just don't feel like going out And then it does the same next day And then the day after that and so on And then it starts to whisper louder and louder in your ears Why would you go outside you loser Didn't have enough yet Want more people to make fun of how much of a big fat loser you are And then you start to breathe in guilt and shame instead of air Every breathe you take is putting more dark thoughts into your body Until you get stuck You can't move anymore At all One of the most common sensations I had during those times was me curling down in a corner crushed by the immense weight of a huge invisible fist pushing me down I was feeling like this when I was lying down in the bed when I was walking around in the backyard when I was talking to people on the phone Crushed by an immense invisible fist unable to move in any direction just waiting to be completely destroyed Sometimes I was actually hoping that the destruction will come from that fist somehow because it would have spare me the effort of doing it myself Yes there were times when I felt the only viable way out from that nothingness was my physical extinction I think the word many of you use for that is suicidal The book you are about to read is the chronicle of my way out of that space Some parts of it are recorded just as I lived them in the moment journaling style Some chapters are literally pages from my journal blog But some are written once the healing effect of running started to kick in It's not so much about being able to run hundreds of kilometers although a lot of it will be just stories about my races as it is about how to regain balance and overcome anxiety and loss      In It for the Long Run Scott Ludwig, Vanessa Stroud,2012-09 Multiple races of marathon distance or greater in a month or perhaps in a weekend Several unsupported runs of 50 and 100 miles through the mountains and forests several times a year Have you ever considered running through a desert across a frozen tundra or over multiple mountain ranges Why not run for three days straight to see how many miles you can accrue Welcome to a place where no locale is too inhospitable and no distance impossible Welcome to the Darkside The Darkside Running Club established in 2002 is a place where runners meet to express their love for distance running and camaraderie by spending countless hours and miles committed to doing what they enjoy most They share a singular focus towards achieving goals far off in the distance both literally and figuratively With their dedication and commitment you may believe the Darksider to be a professional athlete or perhaps an Olympian But you would be wrong they are simply ordinary people doing extraordinary things in the sport they love running Highly competitive while never taking themselves too seriously they strive to shave off minutes or perhaps hours while adding a mile or two or twenty while pushing their limits further and further The impossible becomes possible dreams become reality They won't take no for an answer as they persevere to move beyond physical and emotional discomfort to finish what they started Excuses don't exist Their passion is contagious So reader be warned they're

computers no running water in the home except in the pantry where there was a hand pump and very few toys or luxuries of any kind Also and perhaps more significantly kids for the most part were given chores and did not have time to get into trouble There were no drugs no gangs and no boredom Being the youngest in the family and somewhat sickly the author was to some extent given some slack on farm chores Even so he had daily chores to do starting from a very early age such as milking cows driving the old model T truck fetching the cows cleaning stables feeding livestock driving a tractor and helping wherever help was needed The book describes the one room school house that all kids in the area attended at that time The authors dad had to quit such a school while in third grade to work on the farm when his father died leaving the family without any money or food His mother completed school through eighth grade which was all that most people considered necessary in those days especially for women So there was little or no pressure from the parents to go to school after that As a result the three oldest boys in the family never went past eighth grade There were other reasons to stay home and the most important one was they had no decent clothing The book tells about the Authors mother removing the white stripes from an old pair of band pants and one of the three boys who never completed high school then removing all the little white threads so that he could wear the pants to school He also had no decent shoes so he added home made soles to the bottoms of a pair of his work shoes by attaching them with roofing nails so that he could make the long four mile walk to the school After several trips the nails poked through the bottoms of the shoes and wore holes in his feet Because of that and the lure of the upcoming hunting season and the need to work on the farm he quit school after only a month or so Except for the three oldest boys all of the kids completed high school and several went on to college The book describes such things as making hay the old fashioned way husking corn by hand hoeing corn and then picking rocks while resting butchering a pig delivering baby pigs and calves threshing to separate the grain from the straw and the authors Mom squirting milk straight from the cows tit at cats and grandkids Also described are how the young boys in the family learned to handle a team of horses when they were only 10 years old how one of the boys accidentally cut off his little sisters finger how an uncle lost his leg to the stump puller how the author when he was only eight years old tried to explain to a blind preacher how to use the out house and the Sears Roebuck catalog which was used instead of toilet paper Also described and a little more on the lighter side one of the authors sisters claimed that you havent lived until you ran barefoot through a cow pasture and felt the warmth of a fresh cow patty ooze up between your toes The early chapters also describe the authors time in the US Navy where he was sea sick every time the ship left the dock Hunting stories tell of deer hunting with more failures than successes One successful
