Running Unconscious:

The Hidden Psychology of Our Talking David W. Shave, 2019-04-01 This book introduces the concept of the unconscious entity and reveals it as the most important concept in psychology. The book begins by presenting that the basic emotional need of humans is the need to be emotionally comfortable. Anything that makes us emotionally uncomfortable is a frustration of our basic emotional need that then produces anger. The bigger the frustration the more anger is produced. If that anger is not immediately expressed it becomes repressed and then stored in our mind as unconscious entity making any unwanted feeling we have more unwanted. Unconscious entity arises from our unexpressed anger. It manifests itself as unwanted feelings. The feeling we least want is the very feeling most likely to be produced by our unexpressed anger. To reduce the intensity of an unwanted feeling or to remove it completely we must convert the unconscious entity in our mind back to expressed anger which we can do unconsciously when we talk to a listener about what we dislike or hate. What we dislike or hate will be unconsciously equated with an unconsciously perceived part of our listener. The anger is then directly expressed to that part and will be metaphorically hidden. This reveals a new dimension in human communication that has the capacity to cure psychogenic illnesses. Anger arising from our stored unconscious entity can also be reduced when it is expressed inwardly to ourselves as in any hard work exercise or self punishment or by punishment inflicted by others. Reducing our unconscious entity makes us less emotionally uncomfortable which is the same as making us more emotionally comfortable. That meets our basic emotional need indirectly. This book shows how we unconsciously hide our expressed anger in our talking to a perceived listener. We do it by utilizing unconscious predicate equating that this book shows for the first time anywhere is a prominent cognition of humans and not limited to or being diagnostic of schizophrenia as psychology and psychiatry now believe. It reveals the hidden and real cause for homelessness PTSD pedophilia and why people senselessly kill as in mass killings. This book is a must read not only for anyone associated in any way with psychology or psychiatry but anyone interested in the origin of their own unwanted feelings and wanting to rid themselves of them. Instinct and the unconscious William Halse Rivers Rivers, 1920

Strength Training for Runners John Shepherd, 2015-02-12 Due to cost and time pressures people are abandoning the gym and organised sport in favour of more flexible and informal pursuits such as running. Evolution, Culture, and Consciousness Thomas Edward McNamara,2004 Thomas McNamara in Evolution Culture and Consciousness presents the first comprehensive theory of human perception and consciousness based on the generally accepted principles of evolutionary psychology After explaining how we have all been programmed to preconsciously create meaning out of experience McNamara shows how we can create a new and more successful way of thinking and feeling resulting in a happier more productive stress free life

Transcending Equality, Diversity and Inclusion at Work Marguerite L Weber,Hugo Gaggiotti,2024-06-07 The book reflects on ways of transcending Equality Diversity and Inclusion EDI by establishing a dialogue between the professional experience of the authors and experts from academia and practitioners from financial services and executive search The book emphasises the link and impact between what is taught and what is learned about EDI and how this reflects on later choices in career and workplace status The book offers a critical and global perspective emphasizing the multilocality and intersectionality dimension of diversity and unpicks key insights from different conceptualizations like class gender and postcolonialism and their relationship with the current paradigm of diversity and how people identify and communicate With an extensive collection of testimonies and invitations for reflection the book doesn't limit the analysis to the influences of historical power relations in the workplace but investigates at what stage multicultural power structures start developing a compulsory inclination to create differences and how this can influence hiring decision making and management in the workplace In the book academics and practitioners provide illumination and insights gleaned from their own personal experiences and perspectives Whilst the research targeted financial services and executive search the book's findings will appeal globally to individuals of all age groups regardless of educational status seniority or in which industry they are employed particularly those who are aware of how each one expresses similarity and differences sometimes in not obvious ways
