Running Wild New Chinese Writers Translation Centers:

Running Wild Jeanne Tai, 1994 14 writers from mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan the United States and New Zealand An intriguing introduction to the multitude of new voices in Chinese literature Chinese Poetry in Times of Mind, Mayhem and Money Maghiel van Crevel, 2008-10-02 Chinese Poetry in Times of Mind Mayhem and Money is a groundbreaking study covering a range of contemporary authors and issues from Haizi to Yin Lichuan and from poetic rhythm to exile bashing Its rigorous scholarship literary sensitivity and lively style make it eminently fit for classroom use

Islands and Continents John Minford, Brian Holton, Agnes Hung-chong Chan, 2007-03-01 From one of the most celebrated literary figures in Hong Kong comes this collection of short stories Seeing Hong Kong through a kaleidoscope the author poignantly represents Hong Kong through a variety of themes Translating Others (Volume 2) Theo Hermans, 2014-07-16 Both in the sheer breadth and in the detail of their coverage the essays in these two volumes challenge hegemonic thinking on the subject of translation Engaging throughout with issues of representation in a postmodern and postcolonial world Translating Others investigates the complex processes of projection recognition displacement and othering effected not only by translation practices but also by translation studies as developed in the West At the same time the volumes document the increasing awareness the the world is peopled by others who also translate often in ways radically different from and hitherto largely ignored by the modes of translating conceptualized in Western discourses The languages covered in individual contributions include Arabic Bengali Chinese Hindi Irish Italian Japanese Latin Rajasthani Somali Swahili Tamil Tibetan and Turkish as well as the Europhone literatures of Africa the tongues of medieval Europe and some major languages of Egypt s five thousand year history Neighbouring disciplines invoked include anthropology semiotics museum and folklore studies librarianship and the history of writing systems Contributors to Volume 2 Paul Bandia Red Chan Sukanta Chaudhuri Annmarie Drury Ruth Evans Fabrizio Ferrari Daniel Gallimore Hephzibah Israel John Tszpang Lai Kenneth Liu Szu han Ibrahim Muhawi Martin Orwin Carol O Sullivan Saliha Parker Stephen Quirke and Kate Sturge

Chinese Aesthetics and Literature Corinne H. Dale, 2004-03-18 Featuring the work of renowned scholars this anthology provides an introduction to Chinese aesthetics and literature Chinese Literature in the Second Half of a Modern Century Pang-Yuan Chi, David Der-wei Wang, 2000-09-22 an important contribution to the study of recent Chinese literature Choice This fine scholarly survey of Chinese literature since 1949 discusses such trends as modernism nativism realism root seeking and scar literature misty poets and political feminist and societal issues in modern Chinese literature Library Journal This volume is a survey of modern Chinese literature in the second half of the twentieth century It has three goals 1 to introduce figures works movements and debates that constitute the dynamics of Chinese literature from 1949 to the end of the century 2 to depict the enunciative endeavors ranging from ideological treatises to avant garde experiments that inform the polyphonic discourse of Chinese cultural politics 3 to observe the historical factors that enacted the interplay of literary post modernities across the Chinese communities in the Mainland Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas Chinese Diasporic Writers and Artists Kwok-kan Tam, Lily Li, 2025-09-10 This book presents new and original essays that capture the enigmatic and intriguing personal and imagined worlds of Chinese writers and artists in diaspora in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Including chapters on artist writers such as Gao Xingjian Dai Sijie Ha Jin and Hong Ying Tyrus Wong and Shen Wei the book explores personal cross cultural experiences through their literary and other artistic works reflecting on their cultural identity their native home and their new home the past and the present By writing filming and painting about their diaspora diasporic experience they are writing about their selves and the traumatic experience many of them have gone through in forgetting the past forgiving the damage and foreshadowing a future by re visioning their selves Their experience represents a generation s quest for an identity of being Chinese but culturally distanced from China As a study of cross cultural human experience through the lens of literature film and other arts this book will not only appeal to students and scholars of Chinese diaspora studies it will also appeal to those with an interest in Chinese literature film and culture

Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing Jane Eldridge Miller, 2019-07-23 Unique in its breadth of coverage Who's Who in Contemporary Women's Writing is a comprehensive authoritative and enjoyable guide to women s fiction prose poetry and drama from around the world in the second half of the twentieth century Over the course of 1000 entries by over 150 international contributors a picture emerges of the incredible range of women s writing in our time from Toni Morrison to Fleur Adcock all are here This book includes the established and well loved but also opens up new worlds of modern literature which may be unfamiliar but are never less than fascinating Transcultural Poetics Yifeng Sun, Dechao Li, 2023-02-09 This book examines many facets of transcultural poetics in the English translation of Chinese literature from 12 different expert contributors Translating Chinese literature into English is a special challenge There is a pressing need to overcome a slew of obstacles to the understanding and appreciation of Chinese literary works by readers in the English speaking world Hitherto only intermittent attempts have been made to theorize and explore the exact role of the translator as a cultural and aesthetic mediator informed by cross cultural knowledge awareness and sensitivity Given the complexity of literary translation sophisticated poetics of translation in terms of literary value and aesthetic taste needs to be developed and elaborated more fully from a cross cultural perspective It is therefore necessary to examine attempts to reconcile the desire for authentic transmission of Chinese culture with the need for cultural mediation and appropriation in terms of the production and reception of texts subject to the multiplicity of constraints in order to shed new light on the longstanding conundrum of Chinese English literary translation by addressing Chinese literature in the multiple contexts of nationalism cross cultural hybridity literary untranslatability the reception of translation and also world literature The book will be of great interest to students and scholars of translation studies Chinese literature and East Asian studies The Literature of China in the Twentieth Century Bonnie S. McDougall, Kam Louie, 1997 A historical survey of 20th century Chinese literature this book chronicles the writers who continuing in the Chinese tradition of using literature to exert moral social and political leadership debated the nature development and future of Chinese society Scenes for Mandarins Cyril Birch,1999-04 Ming drama represents the classical Chinese theatre at its most mature Between 1368 and 1644 more than 400 playwrights produced over 1500 plays ranging from one act skits to works with 50 scenes or more As a performing art Ming theatre includes polished singing enchanting music fantastic plotting and intricate choreography The Cambridge History of Chinese Literature: From 1375 Kang-i Sun Chang,Stephen Owen,2010 Stephen Owen is James Bryant Conant Professor of Chinese at Harvard University Book Jacket Area Bibliography of China Richard T. Wang,1997 A combination of scholarly commercial and popular interests has generated a large quantity of literature on every aspect of Chinese life during the past two decades This bibliography reflects these combined interests it is broken up into sections by subject headings and cross references refer the researcher to related topics The Politics of Cultural Capital Julia Lovell,2006-03-31 In the 1980s China s politicians writers and academics began to raise an increasingly urgent question why had a Chinese writer never won a Nobel Prize for literature Promoted to the level of official policy issue and national complex Nobel anxiety generated articles conferences and official delegations to Sweden Exiled writer Gao Xingjian s win in 2000 failed to satisfactorily end the matter and the controversy surrounding the Nobel committee s choice has continued to simmer Julia Lovell s comprehensive study of China s obsession spans the twentieth century and taps directly into the key themes of modern Chinese culture national identity international status and the relationship between intellectuals and politics The intellectual preoccupation with the Nobel literature prize expresses tensions inherent in China s move toward a global culture after the collapse of the Confucian world view at the start of the twentieth century and particularly since China s re entry into the world economy in the post Mao era Attitudes toward the prize reveal the same contradictory mix of admiration resentment and anxiety that intellectuals and writers have long felt toward Western values as they struggled to shape a modern Chinese identity In short the Nobel complex reveals the pressure points in an intellectual community not entirely sure of itself Making use of extensive original research including interviews with leading contemporary Chinese authors and critics The Politics of Cultural Capital is a comprehensive up to date treatment of an issue that cuts to the heart of modern and contemporary Chinese thought and culture It will be essential reading for scholars of modern Chinese literature and culture globalization post colonialism and comparative and world literature The Chinese Translation of Russian Literature Mark Gamsa,2008-08-31 The important place of Russian literature in China is widely acknowledged To better understand the processes of its translation transmission and interpretation during the first half of the 20th century this book draws on an array of Chinese and Russian sources providing insight into the interplay of political ideologies cultural trends commercial forces and the self definition of Chinese culture in the period under consideration By focusing on the translation and translators of three writers Boris Savinkov Mikhail Artsybashev and Leonid Andreev it analyzes the critical fortune in China of the modernist literature written in Russia during the two decades preceding the Great War and Revolution Offering a thorough study of Lu Xun the most important Chinese author of the 20th century as a reader translator and interpreter of Russian literature this book also displays the variety of the groups and persons involved in the introduction of foreign literature going beyond shopworn generalizations about East and West to make meaningful statements about a complex period in Chinese history

The Uses of Literature Perry Link, 2021-03-09 Why do people in socialist China read and write literary works Earlier studies in Western Sinology have approached Chinese texts from the socialist era as portraits of society as keys to the tug of war of dissent or more recently as pursuit of pure art The Uses of Literature looks broadly and empirically at these and many other uses of literature from the points of view of authors editors political authorities and several kinds of readers Perry Link author of Evening Chats in Beijing considers texts ranging from elite misty poetry to underground hand copied volumes shouchauben and shows in concrete detail how people who were involved with literature sought to teach learn enjoy explore debate lead control and resist Using the late 1970s and early 1980s as an entree to the workings of China s socialist literary system the author shows how that system held sway from 1950 until around 1990 when an encroaching market economy gradually but fundamentally changed it In addition to providing a definitive overview of how the socialist Chinese literary system worked Link offers comparisons to the similar system in the Soviet Union In the final chapter the book seeks to explain how the word good was used and understood when applied to literary works in such systems Combining aspects of cultural and literary studies The Uses of Literature will reward anyone interested in the literature of modern China or how creativity is affected by a socialist literary system
