Rural Industrialization In China:

Rural Industrialization in China Jon Sigurdson, 2020-03-17 Small scale industries in rural areas in China are today an essential element of regional development programs This monograph analyzes two main development strategies One involves technology choices in a number of industrial sectors most of which were initiated during the Great Leap Forward in the late fifties The scaling down of modern large scale technology through a product or quality choice combined with changes in the manufacturing processes is discussed at some length for nitrogen chemical fertilizer and cement The other approach is the integrated rural development strategy where a number of activities are integrated within or closely related to the commune system This strategy includes industry as only one component of many instruments where improved public health education and improved agricultural technology contribute to achieving such policy objectives as increased employment and productivity

The Industrialization of Rural China Chris Bramall, 2007 The Industrialization of Rural China highlights the economic social achievements of the Maoist regime Using a constructed dataset covering China's 2000 plus counties complemented by a detailed econometric study of county level industrialization in the provinces of Sichuan Guangdong Jiangsu the author shows that history mattered breaks new ground in the scholarly analysis of an increasingly important highly dynamic part of China's economy Rural Industrialization in China J. George Waardenburg, 1986 Industrialization and China's Rural Modernization Dong Fureng, 2016-07-27 This book analyses China's historical experience of industrialization. It adopts a critical stance towards China's development strategy and proposes an alternative approach outlining its main features. Due to the great importance and special problems of China's rural modernization, special attention is devoted to analysis of the rural sector. Many of China's rural socio-economic problems are similar to those encountered in other developing countries. It is intended that the book will increase understanding of China's socio-economic development as well as contributing to wider debates in the theory of economic development The Development of Township, Village, and Private Enterprises Shin-Ray Lee, 1992 Rural Industrialization in China Yanrui Wu, 1990 Rural Industrialization in China Hong Chun Yang, 1987 Rural Industrialization in Post-reform China G. K. Chadha, 1996 Aims to understand the process of rural industrialization in China during the post-reform period after 1978 and brings out lessons for developing countries of Asia from the experience of the rapid growth of Chinese rural industries during the 1980s China's Road to Development N. Maxwell, 2014-06-28 China's Road to Development is a collection of papers by specialists on aspects of China's economy and society. It covers a wide range of subjects from development strategy to the specifics of small-scale energy exploitation from the role of women in China's development to the greening of China through great efforts in afforestation. Commenting on the limited issue original edition, a special issue of the journal World Development from which this volume has been greatly expanded, Dr Knowles, President of the Rockefeller Foundation, wrote: "A magnificent collection of essays by very astute and experienced observers covering everything from population control, health, economic planning, trade, city planning and rural development to Chinese aid in building the Tanzania-Zambia railway. If I could only afford two books on modern China, I would get this one." Rural Industrialization in China Erik Baumann, 1991 Industrialization and China's Rural Modernization Fureng Dong, 1992-01-01 Rural China Takes Off Jean C. Oi, 1999-05-17 In this incisive analysis of one of the most spectacular economic breakthroughs in the Deng era, Jean C. Oi shows how and why Chinese rural-based industry has become the fastest growing economic sector, not just in China but in the world. Oi argues that decollectivization and fiscal decentralization provided party officials of the localities, counties, townships and villages with the incentives to act as entrepreneurs and to promote rural industrialization in many areas of the Chinese countryside. As a result, the corporatism practiced by local officials has become effective enough to challenge the centrality of the national state. Dealing not only with the political setting of rural industrial development, Oi's original and strongly argued study also makes a broader contribution to conceptualizations of corporatism in political theory. Oi writes provocatively about property rights and principal-agent relationships and shows the complex financial incentives that underpin and strengthen the growth in local state corporatism and shape its evolution. This book will be essential for those interested in Chinese politics, comparative politics, and communist and post communist systems China's Agricultural Modernization On Kit Tam, 2023-08-01 Originally published in 1985 this study investigates the actual experience in mechanization during the Fourth Five Year Plan period a period which represented in many ways a new stage in China's rural development It examines the historical perspective and the development approach under which mechanization efforts were exerted during this 5 year period and the mechanism outcomes and problems these entailed The book addresses the issues involved in agricultural development and mechanization through a more integral analysis of the way technological transformation has been linked to China's quest for social and economic development China's Spatial Economic Development Andrew M. Marton, 2013-12-16 The spatial patterns of China's rapid economic transformation fundamentally challenge conventional geographies of urban and regional development This book provides a theoretically informed case study of the local character of regional change in China's lower Yangzi Delta as well as a new analytical framework for understanding China's unique form of economic modernization
