Ruin and Resilience Daniel

Spoth, Scott Romine, 2023-04-05 In Ruin and Resilience Daniel Spoth confronts why the environmental stories told about the U S South curve inevitably toward distressing plotlines Examining more than a dozen works of postbellum literature and cinema Spoth s analysis winds from John Muir s walking journey across the war torn South through the troubling of southern environmentalism s modernity by Faulkner and Hurston past the accounts of its acceleration in Welty and O Connor and finally into the present uncovering how the tragic econarrative is transformed by contemporary food studies climate fiction and speculative tales inspired by the region Phrased as a reaction to the rising temperatures and swelling sea levels in the South Ruin and Resilience conceptualizes an environmental ecocritical ethos for the southern United States that takes account of its fundamentally vulnerable status and navigates the space between its reactionary politics and its ecological failures unprecedented in human history American farmers fed the industrial revolution and made North America a global breadbasket but at a terrible cost the forced dislocation of Indigenous peoples pollution of great rivers and catastrophic loss of wildlife Today industrial agriculture continues its assault on the prairie plowing up one million acres of grassland a year Farmers can protect this extraordinary landscape but trying new ideas can mean ruin in a business with razor thin margins and will require help from Washington D C and from consumers Veteran journalists and midwesterners Dave Hage and Josephine Marcotty reveal humanity s relationship with this incredible land offering a deep compassionate analysis of the difficult decisions as well as opportunities facing agricultural and Indigenous communities Sea of Grass is a vivid portrait of a miraculous ecosystem that makes clear why the future of this region is of essential concern far beyond the heartland Bill O'Reilly's Legends and Lies David Fisher,2015-04-07 The companion volume to the Fox News series Jacket Social Aspects of Agricultural Credit Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.
