the Grammy Award winning children's artist presents a huge collection of folk songs along with inspiration to start your own family band Too often new parents eager to share their love of music with their young children feel their options are limited to cuddly singing dinosaurs and well meaning humans whose understanding of children's music starts with Kumbaya and ends with Puff the Magic Dragon For many sane adults these choices are more abrasive than the most aggro noise rock of their college years Dan Zanes has spent the past 20 years creating a truly compelling body of children's music that music

Blue Grass Boy Barb Rosenstock,2020-09-29 Learn about the creation of the unique American music called bluegrass through the story of Bill Monroe Bill Monroe loved many things playing music his big family and his home in the bluegrass state of Kentucky Even though his eyes were crossed and didn t work right Bill s ears worked hard picking out all sorts of sounds around his treasured home rushing streams wailing winds and sundown jamborees with his family Through heartache and hard times Bill held on to these sounds that reminded him of home Award winning author Barb Rosenstock and illustrator Edwin Fotheringham beautifully capture the ups and downs of Bill Monroe s musical journey and how his deep Kentucky roots helped him create a unique form of American music bluegrass Chuck Berry

Buddy Holly Johnny Cash and Jerry Garcia all credit Bill Monroe with influencing their music Lonesome Melodies David W. Johnson, 2013-01-24 Carter and Ralph Stanley the Stanley Brothers are comparable to Bill Monroe and Flatt Scruggs as important members of the earliest generation of bluegrass musicians In this first biography of the brothers author David W. Johnson documents that Carter 1925 1966 and Ralph 1927 were equally important contributors to the tradition of old time country music Together from 1946 to 1966 the Stanley Brothers began their careers performing in the schoolhouses of southwestern Virginia and expanded their popularity to the concert halls of Europe In order to re create this post World War II journey through the changing landscape of American music the author interviewed Ralph Stanley the family of Carter Stanley former members of the Clinch Mountain Boys and dozens of musicians and friends who knew the Stanley Brothers as musicians and men The late Mike Seeger allowed Johnson to use his invaluable 1966 interviews with the brothers Notable old time country and bluegrass musicians such as George Shuffler Lester Woodie Larry Sparks and the late Wade Mainer shared their recollections of Carter and Ralph Lonesome Melodies begins and ends in the mountains of southwestern Virginia Carter and Ralph were born there and had an early publicity photograph taken at the Cumberland Gap In December 1966 pallbearers walked up Smith Ridge to bring Carter to his final resting place In the intervening years the brothers performed thousands of in person and radio shows recorded hundreds of songs and tunes for half a dozen record labels and tried to keep pace with changing times while remaining true to the spirit of old time country music As a result of their accomplishments they have become a standard of musical authenticity Mapping Woody Guthrie Will Kaufman, 2019-01-24 I ain't got no home I'm just a roamin' round Woody Guthrie lamented in one of his most popular songs A native of Oklahoma he was still in his teens when he moved to Pampa Texas where he experienced the dust storms that would play such a crucial role in forming his identity and shaping his work He later joined thousands of Americans who headed to California to escape the devastation of the Dust Bowl There he entered the West Coast stronghold of the Popular Front whose leftward influence on his thinking would continue after his move in 1940 to New York where the American folk music renaissance began when Guthrie encountered Pete Seeger and Lead Belly Guthrie kept moving throughout his life making friends soaking up influences and writing about his experiences Along the way he produced more than 3 000 songs as well as fiction journalism poetry and visual art that gave voice to the distressed and dispossessed In this insightful book Will Kaufman examines the artist's career through a unique perspective the role of time and place in Guthrie's artistic evolution Guthrie disdained boundaries whether of geography class race or religion As he once claimed in his inimitable style There ain't no such thing as east west north or south Nevertheless places were critical to Guthrie's life thought and creativity He referred to himself as a compass pointer man and after his sojourn in California he headed up to the Pacific Northwest on to New York and crossed the Atlantic as a merchant marine Before his death from Huntington's disease in 1967 Guthrie had one more important trip to take to the Florida swamplands of Beluthahatchee in the heart of the South There he produced some of his most trenchant criticisms of Jim Crow racism a portion of his work that scholars have tended to overlook To map Guthrie's movements across space and time the author draws not only on the artist's considerable recorded and published output but on a wealth of unpublished sources including letters essays song lyrics and notebooks housed in the Woody Guthrie Archives in Tulsa Oklahoma This trove of primary documents deepens Kaufman's intriguing portrait of a unique American artist The First Generation of Country Music Stars David Dicaire, 2015-01-27 This book focuses on 50 of the most important entertainers in the history of country music from its beginnings in the folk music of early America through the 1970s Divided into five distinct categories it discusses the pioneers who brought mountain music to mass audiences cowboys and radio stars who spread country music countrywide honky tonk and bluegrass musicians who differentiated country music during the 1940s the major contributions that female artists made to the genre and the modern country sound which dominated the genre from the late 1950s to the mid 1980s Each entry includes a brief biography of the chosen artist with special emphasis on experiences which influenced their musical careers Covered musicians include Fiddlin' John Carson Riley Puckett Gene Autry Roy Rogers Bob Wills Bill Monroe Hank Williams Sr Dale Evans June Carter Cash Loretta Lynn Buck Owens Roy Clark Willie Nelson and Merle Haggard Chasing the Rising Sun Ted Anthony, 2007-07-13 Chasing the Rising Sun is the story of an American musical journey told by a prize winning writer who traced one song in its many incarnations as it was carried across the world by some of the most famous singers of the twentieth century Most people know the song House of the Rising Sun as 1960s rock by the British Invasion group the Animals a ballad about a place in New Orleans a whorehouse or a prison or gambling joint that's been the ruin of many poor girls or boys Bob Dylan did a version and Frijid Pink cut a hard rocking rendition But that barely scratches the surface few songs have traveled a journey as intricate as House of the Rising Sun The rise of the song in this country and the launch of its world travels can be traced to Georgia Turner a poor sixteen year old daughter of a miner living in Middlesboro Kentucky in 1937 when the young folk music collector Alan Lomax on a trip collecting field recordings captured her voice singing The Rising Sun Blues Lomax deposited the song in the Library of Congress and included it in the 1941 book Our Singing Country In short order Woody Guthrie Pete Seeger Lead Belly and Josh White learned the song and each recorded it From there it began to move to the planet's farthest corners Today hundreds of artists have recorded House of the Rising Sun and it can be heard in the most diverse of places Chinese karaoke bars Gatorade ads and as a ring tone on cell phones Anthony began his search in New Orleans where he met Eric Burdon of the Animals He traveled to the Appalachians to eastern Kentucky eastern Tennessee and western North Carolina to scour the mountains for the song's beginnings He found Homer Callahan who learned it in the mountains during a corn shucking he discovered connections to Clarence Tom Ashley who traveled as a performer in a 1920s medicine show He went to Daisy Kentucky to visit the family of the late high lonesome singer Roscoe Holcomb and finally back to Bourbon Street to see if there really was a House of the Rising Sun He interviewed scores of singers who performed the song Through his own
