Clausner, 1970      Peasants In Distress Rosemary Vargas-Lundius, 2019-09-05 A study of economic development in the Dominican Republic this book argues that rigid economic structures and poor use of labour resources have created conditions that undermine the demand for labour and maintain perpetual poverty and unemployment Viewing the problem from a broad perspective the author analyzes labour and credit markets offers empirical data on agricultural yields and examines such socioeconomic issues as the living conditions among the peasantry the demand for immigrant Haitian labour and migration from rural to urban areas      Peasants and Religion Mats Lundahl, Jan Lundius, 2012-10-02 This book examines the relationship between economics politics and religion through the case of Olivario Mateo and the religious movement he inspired from 1908 in the Dominican Republic The authors explore how and why the new religion was formed and why it was so successful Comparing this case with other peasant movements they show ways in which folk religion serves as a response to particular problems which arise in peasant societies during times of stress

State And Society In The Dominican Republic Emelio Betances, 2018-03-05 This book offers an analysis of the formation of the Dominican state and explores the development of state society relations since the late nineteenth century Emelio Betances argues that the groundwork for the establishment of a modern state was laid during the regimes of Ulises Heureaux and Ram 1 2 1 2res The U S military government that followed later expanded and strengthened political and administrative centralization Between 1886 and 1924 these administrations opened the sugar industry to foreign capital investment integrated Dominican finance into the international credit system and expanded the role of the military State expansion however was not accompanied by a strengthening of the social and economic base of national elites Betances suggests that the imbalance between a strong state and a weak civil society provided the structural framework for the emergence in 1930 of the long lived Trujillo dictatorship Examining the links between Trujillo and current caudillo Joaquin Balaguer the author traces continuities and discontinuities in economic and political development through a study of import substitution programs the reemergence of new economic groups and the use of the military to counter threats to the status quo Finally he explores the impact of foreign intervention and socioeconomic change on the process of state and class formation since 1961

More than a Massacre Sabine F. Cadeau, 2022-06-09 More than a Massacre is a history of race citizenship statelessness and genocide from the perspective of ethnic Haitians in Dominican border provinces Sabine F Cadeau traces a successively worsening campaign of explicitly racialized anti Haitian repression that began in 1919 under the American Occupiers accelerated in 1930 with the rise of Trujillo and culminated in 1937 with the slaughter of an estimated twenty thousand civilians Relatively unknown by contrast with contemporary events in Europe the Haitian Dominican experience has yet to feature in the broader literature on genocide and statelessness in the twentieth century Bringing to light the massacre from the perspective of the ethnic Haitian victims themselves Cadeau combines official
