Dr. Sangeeta Paul Budhiraja

Ruskins God:

Ruskin's God Michael Wheeler, 1999-11-28 In this 1999 book Michael Wheeler challenges critical orthodoxy by arguing that John Ruskin's writing is underpinned by a sustained trust in divine wisdom a trust nurtured by his imaginative engagement with King Solomon and the temple in Jerusalem and with the wisdom literature of the Old Testament In Modern Painters The Seven Lamps of Architecture and The Stones of Venice belief in the wisdom of God the Father informed Ruskin's Evangelical natural theology and his celebration of Turner's landscape painting while the wisdom of God the Son lay at the heart of his Christian aesthetics Whereas the author of Modern Painters sought to teach his readers how to see architecture paintings and landscapes the Victorian Solomon whose religious life was troubled and who created various forms of modern wisdom literature in works such as Unto this Last The Queen of the Air and Fors Clavigera wished to teach them how to live

John Ruskin and the Ethics of Consumption David Melville Craig, 2006 The first book on the Victorian critic and public intellectual John Ruskin by a scholar of religion and ethics this work recovers both Ruskin's engaged critique of economic life and his public practice of moral imagination With its reading of Ruskin as an innovative contributor to a tradition of ethics concerned with character culture and community this book recasts established interpretations of Ruskin's place in nineteenth century literature and aesthetics challenges nostalgic diagnoses of the supposed historical loss of virtue ethics and demonstrates the limitations of any politics that eschews common purpose as vital to individual agency and social welfare Although Ruskin's moralistic efforts did not always allow for democratic individuality equality and contestation his eclecticism Craig argues helps to correct these problems Further Ruskin's interdisciplinary explorations of beauty work nature religion politics and economic value reveal the ways in which his insights into the practical connections between aesthetics and ethics and culture and character might be applied to today's debates about liberal modernity today With the triumph of global capitalism and the near silence of any opposing voice Ruskin's model of an engaged reading of culture and his public practice of moral imagination deserve renewed attention This book provides students in religion politics and social theory with a timely reintroduction to this timeless figure but an enjoiner for us to reconsider how Ruskin's educational philosophy might be of benefit today Ruskin Bond A Study of Human Emotions Dr. Sangeeta Paul Budhiraja, Literature challenges one not only to think about ethical conundrums but also makes one sensitive and compassionate When it blends with euphoria and nostalgia the integral parts of human mind it toughens and becomes sturdy Man loves to live in his past memories to be happy The experiences form a part of human personality and shape their behaviour pattern Nostalgia stores for us our memories which we relish lifelong Even the lamentable days of past become pleasant Though we might have ignored some not too pleasant incidents in our bygone days yet somewhat bitter experiences appear to be impressive and attractive It is aptly said that the panorama of mountains appear beautiful and splendid from a distance The bitterness of nearness is intolerable The more we grow in years the more our past recedes Distance from the life lived long ago makes it sweet and desirable Strain and stress of the present becomes frivolous when we slip and relapse into euphoric nostalgia The instincts of euphoria and nostalgia have been vividly handled by the legendary writers of all times They have given various dimensions and definitions to the readers to redeem these human aspects yet many more stones are still unturned These two instincts in the oeuvre of the legendary writer Ruskin Bond are the anchor points that suggest the scope of study I have chosen to put forward the very idea about how a man's body mind and soul blend with traces of his past memories and support the holistic growth The Letters of John Ruskin: 1827-1869 John Ruskin, 1909
