 Schnitzler's Reigen Wedekind's Die Büchse der Pandora Eine Monstretragoedie and Thomas's Moral and Magdalena reflect the gender inequity and interaction of their time as described in contemporary non literary texts The works represent a creative participation in gender discourse taking the side of social reformers who argued for a more equitable treatment of women including prostitutes The discrimination endured by prostitutes however is simply an extreme of what all women experienced The dramas expose male oppression of females while simultaneously portraying what women can do in order to achieve limited independence and self determination Women are victims rather than victimizers and male hypocritical attitudes cause women's suffering The Set-Up Ronald Hayman, 2024-11-01 Originally published in 1973 this book investigates the power and the pressures behind English theatre in the late 20th Century analysing its structure and systems and the way that money and motives flow through it On the one hand there are the organisations the big national companies the West End managements the regional repertory theatres the fringe groups the trade unions the Arts Council On the other are the individuals actors directors playwrights agents administrators Ronald Hayman's challenging book illuminates the conflicts and contradictions in the set up It is a mine of information about how theatres are run how shows pay their way and what happens when they don't Political Theatre in Post-Thatcher Britain A. Kritzer, 2008-03-14 The in yer face plays of the mid 1990s announced a new generation shaped by Thatcherism and defined by antipathy to social ideals and political involvement They have generated thoughtful and lively responses from playwrights The resulting dialogue has brought politics to the forefront of British drama and reinvigorated British theatre Selling Sex on Screen Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Catriona McAvo, 2015-07-16 Whether in mainstream or independent films depictions of female prostitution and promiscuity are complicated by their intersection with male fantasies In such films issues of exploitation fidelity and profitability are often introduced into the narrative where sex and power become commodities traded between men and women In Selling Sex on Screen From Weimar Cinema to Zombie Porn Karen A Ritzenhoff and Catriona McAvo have assembled essays that explore the representation of women and sexual transactions in film and television Included in these discussions are the films Breakfast at Tiffany's Eyes Wide Shut L.A. Confidential Pandora's Box and Shame and such programs as Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Gigolos By exploring the themes of class differences and female economic independence the chapters go beyond textual analysis and consider politics censorship social trends laws race and technology as well as sexual and gender stereotypes By exploring this complex subject Selling Sex on Screen offers a spectrum of representations of desire and sexuality through the moving image This volume will be of interest not only to students and scholars of film but also researchers in gender studies women's studies criminology sociology film studies adaptation studies and popular culture
