Excerpt from Lyrics of Lowly Life In fact from every part of Ohio and from several cities of the adjoining States there came letters in cordial appreciation of the critical recognition which it was my pleasure no less than my duty to offer Paul Dunbar s work in another place It seemed to me a happy omen for him that so many people who had known him or known of him were glad of a stranger s good word 5 and it was gratifying to see that at home he was esteemed for the things he had done rather than because as the son of negro slaves he had done them If a prophet is Often without honor in his own country it surely is nothing against him when he has it In this case it deprived me of the glory of a discoverer but that is sometimes a barren joy and I am always willing to forego it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Lyrics of Lowly Life (1896). by Paul Laurence Dunbar, William Dean Howells, 2017-10-11 William Dean Howells March 1 1837 May 11 1920 was an American realist novelist literary critic and playwright nicknamed The Dean of American Letters He was particularly known for his tenure as editor of The Atlantic Monthly as well as for his own prolific writings including the Christmas story Christmas Every Day and the novels The Rise of Silas Lapham and A Traveler from Altruria Paul Laurence Dunbar June 27 1872 February 9 1906 was an American poet novelist and playwright of the late 19th and early 20th centuries Born in Dayton Ohio to parents who had been enslaved in Kentucky before the American Civil War Dunbar began to write stories and verse when still a child he was president of his high school s literary society He published his first poems at the age of 16 in a Dayton newspaper Much of Dunbar s more popular work in his lifetime was written in the Negro dialect associated with the antebellum South though he also used the Midwestern regional dialect of James Whitcomb Riley

Dunbar's work was praised by William Dean Howells a leading editor associated with the Harper's Weekly and Dunbar was one of the first African American writers to establish an international reputation. He wrote the lyrics for the musical comedy In Dahomey 1903 the first all African American musical produced on Broadway in New York. The musical later toured in the United States and the United Kingdom. Dunbar also wrote in conventional English in other poetry and novels. Since the late 20th century scholars have become more interested in these other works. Suffering from tuberculosis which then had no cure Dunbar died in Dayton at the age of 33. Early life Paul Laurence Dunbar was born at 311 Howard Street in Dayton Ohio on June 27 1872 to parents who had been enslaved in Kentucky before the American Civil War. After being emancipated his mother Matilda had moved to Dayton with other family members including her two sons Robert and William from her first marriage. Dunbar's father Joshua had escaped from slavery in Kentucky before the war ended. He traveled to Massachusetts and volunteered for the 55th Massachusetts Infantry Regiment one of the first two black units to serve in the war. The senior Dunbar also served in the 5th Massachusetts Cavalry Regiment. Paul Dunbar was born six months after Joshua and Matilda married on Christmas Eve 1871. The marriage of Dunbar's parents was troubled and Dunbar's mother left Joshua soon after having their second child a daughter. Joshua died on August 16 1885. Paul was then 12 years old. Dunbar wrote his first poem at the age of six and gave his first public recital at the age of nine. His mother assisted him in his schooling having learned to read expressly for that purpose. She often read the Bible with him and thought he might become a minister in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. It was the first independent black denomination in America founded in Philadelphia in the early 19th century. Dunbar was the only African American student during his years at Central High School in Dayton. Orville Wright was a classmate and friend. Well accepted he was elected as president of the school's literary society and became the editor of the school newspaper and a member of the debate club.
